

Filer Holds Open House For Parents

FILER, Nov. 14—Open house for the parents of the Junior-Senior PTA at the high school was held Thursday evening at the meeting of the Junior-Senior PTA at the high school. Parents were given a tour of the school and observed the classes and discussed problems with the teachers.

Mrs. Emil Bernardi led the group in singing a prayer for the group in the meeting. Dolores Goring was the accompanist.

Ann Gule is accompanist. Gilbert Chandler, chairman of the budget and finance board, announced that a cake sale will be held at the January meeting as a fund-raising event.

Mrs. Lauren Butts, president, introduced Arthur O. O'Brien, principal, who explained the procedure for parents to visit their children's classes. Members of the Junior-Senior PTA association served as guides.

Judy Harding, president of PTA, introduced the other officers who include Colonel Bling, vice president; Janet Parham, secretary; Linda Gardner, treasurer; and Judi Smith, reporter. Mrs. Harding stated that the PTA chapter has 35 members and that the objective of the organization is to interest young people in teaching.

The PTA members will attend a state meeting in Pocatello next week and a district meeting in Coalinga in the spring.

Mrs. Joyce Harding, program chairman, presented Diane Rork and Susan Rork, who played background music during the refreshment hour.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Raymond Ulrich, Mrs. Lester Joelin, Mrs. Charles Ross, Mrs. Marion Pendergraft, Mrs. Helen Ward, Mrs. William Lanning and Mrs. C. M. Lanning.

There will be no meeting in December. The next meeting is set for Jan. 14.

Shed Burns in North Shoshone

SHOSHONE, Nov. 14—A fire burned a small logging shed and a saw and clover chaff stack in North Shoshone Wednesday night.

The fire, one-fourth mile north of the Loren Hubbs house, started from an electric fence and burned too fast for members of the family to control it.

The fire truck in North Shoshone and two from Shoshone were called by Mrs. Kenneth Thorpe, who noticed the fire when it began.

Area School Phone Booth Is Damaged

TRANSEN, Nov. 14—The telephone at the outdoor booth at the Hansen schools was destroyed sometime early Thursday morning, school officials report.

At the same time the south front entrance door to the main school building was jammed, but no entrance was gained, according to officials.

The plastic phone was broken and had to be replaced. The door of the school building also needed repair.

Thursday morning a safe belonging to Harney's Building Supply, Kimberly, was found close to the feed yards on the

Turkey Shoot Set Saturday At Heyburn

A. R. Scott ranch a mile southeast of Heyburn.

The safe had been pried open evidently with crowbars. Valuable contract papers and tickets were scattered all about. However, only cash was missing, $10.50. It was reported $600 in checks were not taken.

Entrance was gained to the Harney Building supply yard through a bathroom window, bolts removed from the door leading to the yard, according to Mrs. Harney. The safe weighed 400 pounds.

Most of the papers have been recovered, but a few evidently blew away.

The safe was discovered by Bryan Harris, Jr., who farms the land, and he called officials, who immediately had been notified by the Harneys.

Since the yard had been inspected about 2 a.m. by a Kimberly official, it was believed the burglary took place after that time. They feel the damage at the school house and to the telephone may have been done by the same group.

Banquet Held for Official Opening of Cement Plant

More than 50 persons, representing the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce Industrial Committee and southern Idaho building companies, attended a special banquet held Thursday at Kay's supper club to commemorate the grand opening of the new terminal facilities of Idaho Portland Cement company.

The new terminal is located near the old Union Pacific roundhouse on South Park avenue west.

After introductions by William Granger, Gerben Kingma,

Wendell Post Has Program For Veterans

WENDELL, Nov. 14—Activities for Veterans day Wednesday arranged by Wendell American Legion post No. 41 included a high school assembly and a potluck dinner for all veterans and auxiliary members.

Vernon Ravenscroft, Gooding county representative, was featured speaker for both events.

More than 300 junior high and high school students and their instructors attended the morning assembly. George Rogers, school principal, led the group in the pledge of allegiance. He introduced the Legion delegation, Fred Richins, commander; Grant Zollinger, service officer; and Charles Irwin.

Zollinger spoke briefly of the 40th anniversary of the ending of World War I, "the war to end all wars," and the changing of names from Armistice day to Veterans day, June 1, 1950, by a proclamation by President Dwight Eisenhower in order to honor veterans of all wars.

Ravenscroft told his youthful audience youths of today are living in the "break-through" age and a time of great opportunity. "There is no room for gloom and doom," he said, "each generation must win anew its freedom and to do this they must work and work intelligently."

The host, Wendell Post No. 41, then gave the full measure of their lives for our freedoms to dedicate ourselves to carry forward the task they began for the future belongs to those who prepare for it," he concluded.

More than 75 attended the potluck dinner and entertainment at the Legion hall in the evening.

Grant Zollinger served as master of ceremonies. He introduced special guests Chet Floyd, Gooding fourth district commander; and Mrs. Floyd; Mrs. H. J. Barton, Mrs. Grace Hartwell and Mrs. Ruby Peterson. Wendell gold star mothers; Mrs. Frank Smith, Wendell auxiliary president; and Wendell Richins, post No. 41 commander.

Representative Ravenscroft gave the address of the evening. Mrs. Paul Eaton gave the invocation. The musical part of the program was given by Austin Durbin, his daughters, Sandra Durbin and Sylvia Durbin, and Valerie Hove.

Other Hove played a trumpet solo accompanied by his father, Omar Hove. The Hove Cox and Darce sang a duet and Olive Parker gave a reading.

Mrs. Fern Harris was accompanist and played background music with audience participation on several patriotic numbers.

The committee on arrangements from the Legion post were Richins and Zollinger, and from the auxiliary, Mrs. Joseph Springer, Mrs. Ann Ruiter and Mrs. Lena Stickland.

Accidents in T.F. County Are Reported

Twin Falls county deputy Sheriff investigated one accident Thursday in the county and a Mullanah woman reported an accident to the office.

A deputy investigated an accident at 2:30 a.m. Thursday eight miles southeast of Twin Falls on Champlain road. The deputy reported Elva O. Cox, 43, route 2, Kimberly, was driving a 1958 Ford on the county road when the vehicle struck a bridge guard.

She told the deputy she had been almost run off the road and was unable to avoid colliding with the guard.

Mrs. Violet M. Brandt, 34, Mullanah, reported to the sheriff's office that the 1961 Mercury she was driving at 2 p.m. Thursday, one-fourth of a mile north and three and one-half miles east of Mullanah, lost the left side of the highway, went into a borrow pit then back on the road.

No injuries were reported and no citations issued.

Open House Set

Grand Jury Questions 2 Movie Stars

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 14 (AP)—Two members of the famed Hollywood "rat pack," Frank Sinatra and Sammy Davis, Jr., have been questioned by a federal grand jury in Kansas City.

Federal officers said they could not comment on Sinatra's appearance before the grand jury yesterday or the appearance by Davis Thursday.

Sinatra and Davis also refused to say what the grand jury wanted with them.

Sinatra flew to Kansas City yesterday. He and two attorneys entered the federal courtroom through a truck-loading dock and went by freight elevator to the fifth-floor courtroom.

Sinatra left for the airport immediately after his appearance, just as Davis did Thursday.

Two Hunters Are Found in High Sierras

PORTERVILLE, Calif., Nov. 14 (AP)—Two southern California hunters were missing in the high Sierras for a week were found alive today.

Tulare county sheriff Sgt. Bud Lyman, on board a search and rescue helicopter, radioed the sheriff's office yesterday that Stanley Hensley, 40, Ojai, and Kenneth McCoy, 24, Oxnard, were sighted in a clearing in a canyon on or near the Tule Indian reservation.

Lyman said they had set a fire to the clearing, which had attracted the helicopter. He said they would try to fly them out but if that proved impossible, a ground party already was on its way to them and they could bring them out on four-wheel drive vehicles.

The ground party left Porterville last night and included relatives of the hunters.

Lyman said Hensley and McCoy were taken to a hospital. He did not say whether they were injured or suffering from hunger and exposure. Temperatures in the Porterville area have dropped to below freezing and there is a foot of snow on the ground.

Hensley and McCoy left their camp along Nobles creek seven miles south of Quaking Aspen last Saturday with only rifles and ammunition. There was no sign of them until today, the first day that weather permitted aircraft to be used in the search, when the fire was sighted.

Murphy Speaks At Veterans Day School Program

RICHFIELD, Nov. 14 (AP)—State Sen. Jack Murphy, Rhinehart, was guest speaker at the Richfield Veterans day program held Wednesday morning in the high school auditorium.

Senator Murphy told the students and townspeople in attendance to recall efforts of other veterans to downsize America. He paid tribute to veterans and war dead, closing with the famous words of the late President John F. Kennedy, "Ask not what your country can do for you, but what you can do for your country."

The program, directed by the Richfield American Legion post, was conducted by Cmdr. Everett Ward. Patriotic songs were sung by elementary classes of the four upper grades, directed by Howard Knowles. Sterling King pronounced the benediction.

Infant Dies

CASTLEFORD, Nov. 14 (AP)—Johnny Dean Cantrell, 7-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cantrell, Castleford, died Friday morning in Magie Valley Memorial hospital of a brief illness.

He was born April 3, 1964, in Twin Falls. Survivors, in addition to his parents, include one brother, Ralph Cantrell; five sisters, Betty, Cathy, Marilyn, Cantrell, Judy Cantrell, Beverly Cantrell and Sherry Cantrell, all Castleford; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Whaley, Buhi, and paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cantrell, Buhi, Mo.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Monday at the Albertson-Dickard chapel by the Rev. R. J. Kennedy, pastor of the Castleford Baptist church. Friends may call at the Albertson-Dickard funeral home from 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday and from 10 to 12 p.m. Monday. Final rites will be held in the Buhi cemetery.

News Around Idaho

POCATELLO, Nov. 14 (AP)—Idaho, Montana, Nevada and Utah are expected to be represented at a Nursing Education workshop Monday and Tuesday at Idaho State University. The university department of nursing will be host to the workshop, sponsored by the Idaho League for nursing and the Idaho state board of nursing registration and nursing education. About 50 nursing educators from the four states are expected to attend.

BOISE, Nov. 14 (AP)—The Idaho Farmers Home administration expressed hope tonight that private lending institutions would make credit available to family-type farmers. "I have read where some real estate lenders are leaning heavily to corporate sized farms," Hansen told the Grand View Lions club. "I hope that they can make real estate loans soon to family farms. These farmers are the ones who live on their farms, send their children to school and make a community grow. They build America," Hansen said. The Farmers Home administration "only makes loans to the rural residents who are unable to get credit from other sources." But he said that 75 percent of the farmers who have homesteaded land in the past 10 years have turned to the FHA for financial help. "Development of new lands is always of a high risk nature," Hansen said. "But our experience on the Minidoka project indicates that our first-timers are the ones who make it. Credit graduation is our ultimate goal."

BOISE, Nov. 14 (AP)—A conference room in the Idaho air national guard's Gowen field headquarters building will be dedicated Sunday in honor of the late Col. David N. Johnson, an air guardman veteran of World War II and the Korean conflict, died last January.

BOISE, Nov. 14 (AP)—An average of 7.6 per cent of Idahoans who are 65 and over received public assistance during September, the state department of public assistance reported today. The state's population of those 65 and over was estimated at 60,000 and the number of those receiving public assistance was 4,557. Owyhee county, including the Duck Valley Indian reservation, topped the list with 12.1 per cent of those over 65 getting aid. Boundary county ranked second with 11.4 per cent and Jerome county was third with 10 per cent. Expenditures for old age assistance during the month totaled $127,721, the department said. Medical assistance for the aged cost $204,702 and $361,672 was spent for aid to dependent children. Aid to the permanently and totally disabled amounted to $106,970 and $3,620 was paid to the blind. The caseload for the month was 10,047, compared with 10,660 in August and 10,090 in July.

BOISE, Nov. 14 (AP)—A vice president of the First Security corporation of Salt Lake City says that Idaho's growth picture isn't as dark as it has been painted by some economists. Dr. Elmer Nelson made the statement yesterday at an economic symposium attended by more than 250 students representing 13 Utah and Idaho colleges and universities. Nelson said farm income in Idaho during 1950 was equal to the national average and that more recent figures put the state's employment rate even with the national average. "Moreover," said Nelson, "bank loans are increasing at a rate in excess of that for the nation." Nelson said, however, that Idaho will probably have to adopt a sales tax law because its property tax cannot go higher.

BOISE, Nov. 14 (AP)—The permanent building fund advisory council considered 1964-67 building program has been submitted to Gov. Robert E. Smylie but it will not be made public until the final proposal is drafted. The council completed work on the projected seven million dollar program yesterday in a closed door session. The recommended projects were included in the national "Blueprint for Growth" and the council by various state institutions. While he would not disclose the specific projects recommended for funding, council Chairman James McCarty did say that the suggested program does "include something for every institution." Smylie said the council's recommendations would be made available to the legislature by the governor, usually during the first week of the session. The budget committee of the legislative council will meet in Boise next week to review budget requests for all agencies and may make recommendations but is not required to.

BALMON, Nov. 14 (AP)—Elks lodge ritual teams from seven eastern Idaho lodges will compete in Balmon Sunday for the district championship. Competition will start at 8 a.m. at the new Elks building, winner of the district championship will receive a state coin, and the state winner will enter a national meet.

BOISE, Nov. 14 (AP)—Directors of the Idaho Municipal league approved today proposed legislation which the 1963 Idaho legislature will be urged to enact. Topical subject of the legislation is the proposed seven million dollar program for the purpose of all property in the state. At present some counties assess at a higher percentage of actual cash value than others and some classes of property get higher ratings than others. The directors also urged reclassification of all laws dealing with municipal taxes and they might not pass for enactment of a new code in the 1965 session, because of the cost. The cost is estimated at from $20,000 to $25,000. Some changes, aimed at removing ambiguities in municipal election laws, will be urged at the session which begins in January. Ed Zimmerman, league executive secretary, said that the league's purpose is to help and second vice president of the league, presented at the session. Thirteen of the league's 17 directors attended.

BOISE, Nov. 14 (AP)—Idaho mathematics teachers were told yesterday that they are more important to the students than to books. Bruce McCreary, mathematics instructor at the University of Vermont, addressed the teachers during sessions of the annual meeting of the Idaho Council of Mathematics. McCreary, who is president of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics, noted that Idaho will adopt new textbooks on mathematics next year. "The need for a new code in the 1965 session," he said, "is the way in which a teacher uses the textbook." He said a project is under way in Idaho with secondary school teachers aiding elementary teachers in improving their mathematical background.

IDAHO CITY, Nov. 14 (AP)—A hearing to determine whether Boise county Probate Judge-Elect Arnel L. Crowley should be allowed to take office before next Jan. 11 has been scheduled for next Wednesday in third district court. Incumbent W. W. White, who was appointed to the office in June 1963, when Crowley resigned to serve on a jury, did not want to resign this year but he would not relinquish it until January. Crowley returned from his mission last June and was elected to the office in the Nov. 3 general election, defeating Democrat Harry Parsons. It is a petition filed with the court yesterday, Crowley contended he is legally entitled to take over the office on this date. He is presently an appointee serves until his successor is duly elected and qualified.

BOISE, Nov. 14 (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smylie says he believes changes favorably affecting the proposed Columbia river compact have been improved with the election of Evans as governor of Washington. Evans defeated Gov. Albert Rosellini, an outspoken critic of the compact, in the latter's bid for reelection in the Nov. 3 general election. Smylie said Evans has indicated support of the compact and that he has asked the governor-elect to support the compact and that he has asked the governor-elect to support the compact and that he has asked the governor-elect to support the compact.

IT WAS TIME to celebrate Friday night after Miss Teen-Age America 1965 and alternate were crowned in Dallas, Tex. The winner of the contest was Carolyn Mignini, 17, Baltimore, Md., right. Baltimore Beauty Is Chosen As Miss Teen-Age America

DALLAS, Nov. 14 (AP)—Carolyn Mignini, 17-year-old beauty from Baltimore, began her reign as Miss Teen-Age America today by accepting the title.

The brown-haired, five-foot, three-inch singer was a portrait of happiness today as she met reporters for her first press conference as Miss Teen-Age America.

Mignini was crowned last night before an estimated 30 million television viewers on a 30-minute pageant broadcast by CBS-TV from the Dallas Memorial Auditorium theater.

She said everything seemed "very real, but also very dreamy."

Throughout the week and during last night's pageant, Mignini was the one contestant of all 63 who seemed to be the model of confidence and calmness. And when her name was announced by emcee Bud Collyer, she broke all pageant traditions by not shedding one tear.

"I just never knew when I was happy," she explained. "I didn't think I would win and wasn't even confident. I was just enjoying myself."

"I just took everything as it came. And I'm happy."

Mignini was the toast of a late night coronation ball and buffet and was escorted by Texas Gov. John Connally. Afterwards, she said she "read a few of the telegrams that came and felt into bed. I was exhausted but got to sleep late this morning."

Tomorrow she will fly to Detroit to begin her duties. She will become official traffic safety

This Is My Beloved Country

"I thought I could put more personality in this song," she said. "I even changed my costume. I thought the first one made me look too much like Anna Marie Alberghe."

Mignini hopes to spend her scholastic prize money at the Juillard School of Music in New York. She aims at a Broadway career as a singer and will major in voice and minor in piano if she is accepted at the Juillard school.

She said she prefers musical comedy tunes and folk music to the frenzy of rock and roll, but confessed she did like the Beatles "instead of an anthem."

Spud Plant At Burley to Remain Open

BURLEY, Nov. 14.—The Orinda processing plant No. 2 which was scheduled to shut at mid-night Friday for extensive modifications will remain open until the current potato harvest is completed, directors decided in a last-minute decision Friday.

More than 400 workers, who expected to be laid-off, were assured of continued work, according to Orinda officials.

The plant was purchased by the Orinda Potato Processors, Inc. in September.

It is planned that new equipment will be installed in the spring after the crop has been harvested and processed.

Extensive modification of the plant is planned to better fit the company's overall production and sales plans. Equipment will be geared for processing of specialty products and revamped to increase efficiency in processing of by-products, Williams said.

Space Agency Aide Speaks At Hansen

HANSEN, Nov. 14.—A general assembly held Friday morning in the small gymnasium with a talk and demonstration given by Harold Bacon, national aeronautics and space administration representative, culminated the week-long observance of American Education week at the Hansen school.

Bacon spoke on all phases of space mobility including rockets, weather balloons and space craft and showed small scale models of such vehicles. He later spoke to the junior high class in the biology classes, and in the afternoon to advanced mathematics and science classes.

At Thursday night's band and chorus presentation, Roger Vincent was featured as guest soloist, performing with the high school band, with Ronald Koford as the director. A gift of appreciation was presented to Vincent.

Veterans day and American Education week were both observed in a program given Wednesday afternoon in the large gymnasium.

Members of the national guard presented the flag and a drill. Gordon Hill, president of the student body, acted as master of ceremonies.

The speaker, dressed in the uniform of a soldier, recited the poem, "In Flanders Field" and Sylvia Preston talked on Veterans day, stating "We must maintain our economic and moral strength. Our country deserves everyone's strong loyalty."

The high school band played patriotic numbers. Vicki Larson and Frank Koller, speech class students, gave the original talks. Vicki talked on the "Three U's: Unskilled, Unfilled and Unemployed." Frank chose "Education is the key to a better future."

Supervisor William Barnard welcomed the parents and guests. Ted Crockett gave the invocation.

Martin Fear Dies in T. F.

Martin D. Fear, 74, long time Twin Falls resident, died at 12:40 p.m. Friday in Magic Valley Memorial hospital of a short illness.

Mr. Fear was born Aug. 3, 1890, at Canyon City, Colo., and came to Idaho in 1911. He married Nora Jones Sept. 25, 1914, in Twin Falls.

He was a member of the Christian church.

Survivors include his widow; two daughters, Mrs. Charlotte Crockett, Hansen, and Mrs. Jewell Jacobson, Clatskanie; two half brothers, Jess Lancaster, Twin Falls, and George Lancaster, Nampa; six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by one son, Duane Fear, and one daughter, Nancy Vincent Fear.

Funeral services will be conducted at 3 p.m. Monday in White mortuary by the Rev. Martin Torrence. Final rites will be held at Sunset Memorial park.

Unlucky 13th

BRYAN, Tex., Nov. 14.—Don't tell Mrs. Marie Doyette Friday the 13th isn't an unlucky day.

She slammed the door of her son's sports car on her middle finger of her left hand. A short while later she slammed the same door on the thumb of the same hand and had to be treated at a hospital.

Veterans Day Observance Successful

"It is gratifying to me, since the majority of plans for Veterans day many citizens agreed that the observance in Twin Falls was a success far above expectations," stated Maj. Larry Laughridge, general chairman of the Veterans day observance here.

"The fact that this was the first observance held in Twin Falls in several years, the outcome was doubtful. Through the assistance of the merchant bureau, plans were started early for veterans day activities."

"As anyone knows, the type of observance worthy of the veterans' participation and the public's viewing is not easy to plan. Without the support of a non-profit active military installation to supply equipment and personnel, we must rely on the local army and navy units to plan and execute a creditable showing."

He said he expects veteran participation to be larger next year. "I never too early to look forward and make plans for next year. We are assured of having an annual football game next year and thereafter on this day. Pre-game and half-time activities can be planned to increase observance on this day."

"I feel and certainly hope that the success of Veterans day last Wednesday in Twin Falls is a good start in encouraging widespread activity and worthy tribute to the veteran will work back into every citizen's annual schedule," he concluded.

Officers Selected By Astronomers

Bryan Randall has been elected president of the Southern Amateur Astronomers association. It was announced Saturday.

Paul Ghimp was elected vice president, Diane Westbrook, secretary-treasurer and Mike Wright, group reporter.

Anyone of high school or junior high school age who is interested in joining the association is invited to attend the next meeting at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 9, in Forester's hall.

During the winter, meetings will be held on the second Wednesday of each month.

Plans for UNICEF Drive Made

Representatives from the Twin Falls Ministerial association and the YWCA have met to formulate plans for an SOS (Share Our Surplus) and UNICEF drive for the evening of Nov. 23, from 7 to 10:30 p.m. Although usually done on Halloween night, the feeling was that Thanksgiving time was more in keeping with the meaning behind the drive.

Young people from the churches will be collecting for SOS. The YWCA Y-Teens will be collecting for UNICEF, which has been their annual project. Each group has been assigned a specific area of Twin Falls to cover.

Attending the meeting were the Rev. Ernest Hasselblad, the Rev. Eugene Tiers, the Rev. Forrest Hubbard, the Rev. Warren Howell, David Wells, Mrs. Marvin Moloney, the Rev. Ron Keeshan and the Rev. Elvin Goebl.

Following the drive, junior high young people will go to the Episcopal church of the Assumption for a party and the senior high students will go to the Y building for games and refreshments.

Death Takes M. L. Arnold

HANSEN, Nov. 14.—Marvin L. Arnold, 49, route 1, Hansen, died at 3 p.m. Friday at his home.

Mr. Arnold was born Aug. 23, 1915, at Poncha, Colo., and married Ruth Buhr about June 1935 in Boise. He was a member of the Idaho national guard, 110th engineer company, while serving in World War II. He was a member of the Baptist church and past master of the Knoll Grange.

Survivors, in addition to his widow, include one step-son, Donald L. Bell, Twin Falls, and three sisters, Leola Whitaker and Emma Weil, both in Jerome, and Bernice Davis, Sacramento, Calif.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Tuesday in White mortuary chapel by the Rev. Chester Whiteaker. Final rites will be held at Sunset Memorial park.

Last Rites Held For C. S. Snyder

Requiem mass was celebrated Saturday at the St. Edward's Catholic church by the Rev. Mr. Edmund Cody for Clayton B. Snyder. Rosary was recited for Mr. Snyder Friday at White mortuary chapel.

Final rites were conducted at Sunset Memorial park.

Active pallbearers were R. L. Greenblatt, Mark Richards, Leo Weibel, Lloyd LeClair, James Byrnes and G. G. Griggs.

Honorary pallbearers were T. E. (Bill) Webster and Sidney Craig.

Pick Winners

Jim Fisher was named president of the O-Yo-Kwa Women's club of Twin Falls during a recent election replacing Clint Jensen while Art Ireland and Jim Galindo were picked as directors for the coming year.

The new vice president is Frank Shehorn and Doris Ingard was elected secretary-treasurer. Outgoing vice president is Jim Shehorn and Oliver Ingram was replaced by Mrs. Ingram.

Octogenarian Banquet Set On Thursday

BUILT, Nov. 14.—The Hill Rotary club will observe its annual octogenarian banquet honoring elderly residents of the community at 6:30 p.m. Thursday at the El and El cafe. It was announced during the Thursday luncheon meeting.

The committee in charge of arrangements includes James Hart, chairman; William Atkins, Roy Hopkins, John Barker and James T. Shields.

It was pointed out the committee is seeking names of persons 80 years of age and over to invite. Anyone in the community knowing of a person eligible to be invited is requested to contact one of the committee members.

During the luncheon meeting Robert Bailey, assisted by James Shields and Robert Evans, presented a list of octogenarian members of the club as part of the program.

High school seniors who were guests were Earl Traxler, Steve Pepoe and Craig Hopkins.

Girls Leave for State Contest

BLISS, Nov. 14.—Beverly Hamman, Gooding, and Carolyn Van Zante, Twin Falls, will leave Sunday to compete in the state Makart beauty contest. The contest is held at the Blinn hotel, according to Mrs. James Paulkner, Bliss.

The state winner of the six districts in Idaho will compete in the national contest in Phoenix, Ariz., Jan. 15-17. Grand prize each girl is competing for is a two-week European holiday.

Mrs. Hamman was division B winner and Miss Van Zante, division C. Other district three winners were Cynthia Runk, Twin Falls; division A, and Daisy Eisinger, Gooding, division D.

2 Burglaries Investigated In Twin Falls

Twin Falls police Saturday were investigating Friday night burglaries of two business establishments in the city.

Police Chief M. Frank Barnett reported an undetermined amount of money was taken from a cigarette and candy machine at North's cafe, 803 Main avenue west, sometime Friday night. The burglary was discovered at 5:05 a.m. Saturday morning.

Barnett added that the person or persons who entered the cafe also tried to pry open a safe, but apparently were frightened away and left without completing the job.

It is estimated $10.70 was taken from a cigarette machine at Co-Op Supply Inc. between 7:30 p.m. and 11:30 p.m. Friday.

Barnett said, "at the present time there is nothing on the report to indicate the two burglaries were done by the same person."

Barnett also noted that 35-day incidents did not seem to be related to the Thursday night or early Friday morning theft of $18 from the Twin Falls public library.

Helped

NORTH VANCOUVER, B. C. Nov. 14.—Mrs. Minnie Jociatagge was split financially in the number slot while dialing in a public telephone booth yesterday, and was helped by a passerby.

Being her distress, a bystander used an adjoining booth to call firemen who freed the woman by cutting through the metal dial chamber.

FOR MEN ONLY:

When you are called upon to speak in a meeting... what do you do? Do you rise to your feet confidently and then respond with appropriate remarks, or do you refuse with apologies?... Would ability to present your ideas in clear, brief, convincing style be welcome?

If your answer to that last question is "Yes," then you should enroll in the SPEECHCRAFT course offered by the I. B. Perrine Club, No. 793 of Toastmasters International.

SPEECHCRAFT is a short, comprehensive course in the fundamentals of speech, combined with pleasant companionship and friendly coaching from fellow business and professional men with previous speech training and experience. These men have the ability to help you—and want to do so.

The course begins November 23 at 7 p.m. and continues for eight weeks. You will find a group of representative men who will welcome you as a fellow student and who will do all they can to help you. You will not be embarrassed by being called upon to speak before you are ready, but you will have a chance to talk when you wish.

BUN VALLEY, Nov. 14—On All Saints day, Nov. 1, for the first time in at least 11 years, St. Thomas' church bell rang out the call to worship.

The pioneer bell has been hung in the old church belfry, which was built over 70 years ago when Ketchum was just a youngster, and for many years it served as a call to worship and also performed the duties of a fire alarm for the pioneer settlement and gave timely warning of other dangers.

It was in 1884 that the melodious bell was cast at the Buckeye Bell Foundry, operated by Vandusen and Pitt at Olinch, O.

Mrs. Edith Ellis, now 91 and the oldest member of the congregation, as superintendent of the Sunday school, rang the bell herself each Sunday morning from 1931 until 1952. She was the first to ring it in its new belfry.

When the pioneer Episcopal building was deconsecrated and sold, the bell was removed and stored until such time as a belfry could be erected at the new and modern St. Thomas' church.

The new belfry, perfectly designed and erected under the voluntary direction of Oliver Martin, is a fitting complement to the new St. Thomas' church, of which Mrs. Martin is a member.

The structure which houses the bell is a gift from Everett R. Taylor in memory of his parents, who lived in Malmisburg, O., not far from where the bell was cast.

PTA Changed

SHOSHONE, Nov. 14—The PTA meeting scheduled for Monday will be held at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 23. Mrs. Leo Knowles, PTA president, announced the change was made because of other meetings involving teachers.

Back-to-school will be featured for the PTA meeting this month at the high school study hall. All parents of junior high and high school students are urged to attend.

Buhl Grange Meeting Is Postponed

BUHL, Nov. 14—The regular Buhl Grange meeting, slated for Nov. 28 was postponed to Dec. 3 because of the Thanksgiving holiday, it was announced during a meeting Thursday night.

The Dec. 10 meeting will feature a potluck dinner and Christmas gift exchange. A potluck dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hobson, who are moving to Boise, will be held at 7 p.m. Nov. 21 at the Donald Dietz residence.

Mrs. Earl Faylinger in giving the courtesy committee report noted Mrs. Elmer Phillips and Miss Jeanne Seligson, ill, and Kenneth Shrader is in the hospital for surgery.

Donald Dietz was presented with a past master's pin denoting his two years of service as master. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lehman, delegates, reported on the recent state Grange sessions held at Boise.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kleinke.

Declo Woman Is Appointed Grange Aide

DECLO, Nov. 14—Mrs. Edwin Schwager was appointed chairman of the home economics committee for the Idaho state Grange, during the recent session held in Boise.

She has the responsibilities of coordinating activities of the women's work in the Grange, which consists of both state and national contests. Entries are first judged in the subordinate Granges, then in Pomona Grange competition and winning entries are then sent to state and national contest to compete for various outstanding awards.

Entries for the state contest will include decorative soft pillows, cotton blouses, finger painting, candy and bread making. The bread making contest is sponsored by the Idaho wheat grower's association.

The Granges will also submit in year books, scrapbooks and yearly reports, open to Grange members only.

The national cotton sewing contest and the national needlework contest are open to Grange members in good standing and non-members sponsored by a Grange member.

Revival Services Slated for Buhl

BUHL, Nov. 14—The Rev. Wade Jernigan, director of Idaho and Pacific Northwest Free Will Baptist missions, will conduct revival services starting Sunday at the Buhl Free Will Baptist church.

Sugar Beet Growers to Get Payments

ODDEN, Nov. 14 (AP)—An initial payment of the 1934 sugar beet crop of approximately $21,213,000 was made today to growers in Utah, Idaho and Oregon by the Utah-Idaho-Oregon Sugar Company, Inc., announced by E. E. Bennett, company president.

Bennett said the payment is based on about 2,100,000 tons of sugar beets which were harvested through Oct. 31.

The current crop is about 88 per cent harvested. Weather conditions have been ideal in all of the company's growing territories since harvesting operations began in late September.

Payments per acre are down from $1.25 a year ago, however, sugar companies have been running at a profit for the first time in handling the crop since 1913.

The receipt and payment of three million dollars for nearly three million tons of sugar beets.

The payment this week will be made to growers in Utah, Idaho and Oregon, including Weber and Cache counties, $2,000,000; Idaho, $2,000,000; and Oregon, $2,000,000.

Utah growers received $1,000,000; Idaho, $1,000,000; and Oregon, $1,000,000.

Farmer Ends 15-Year Row With IRS

CHICAGO, Nov. 14 (AP)—William Lusk, 38, ended his 15-year battle with the government tax boys yesterday and went home to his southern Illinois farm $100,000 poorer.

Wearing a hearing aid rented for him by the government at $1 a day, Lusk, who had been watching a court order divesting him of more than $100,000 in securities.

Judge Parsons also ordered Lusk freed from a contempt order of a contempt-of-court order. At that time, he refused to produce the stocks.

"Maybe I should have hired a lawyer when I first came to court," Lusk said after court.

"Now I'll go back to the farm to harvest a crop of hops and gather my scattered chickens."

The hearing aid was necessary because Lusk, a bachelor, in early 1929 and after has been unable to understand his court-appointed attorneys or the court.

The government will use the securities to satisfy nearly $70,000 in income tax liens, dating back to 1926. Funds remaining will be returned to Lusk.

For years the fiercely independent farmer ignored government summons and claims. Once drawn into court, Lusk refused to pay, claiming the "tax boys" had erred in their calculations.

Last December, however, he agreed to settle with the government for $500.

The federal prosecutor termed the offer ridiculous, and Judge Parsons ordered Lusk to take a mental examination.

"This guy is one for the books," said attorney Sidney J. Goldstein, appointed last year to defend Lusk.

"I'm sure the government would have settled for less," Goldstein said, "provided that he would consent to sell in his securities and then turn in the money."

"But he'd rather go down the drain than compromise, even though he knows the government would win."

Lusk's only complaint yesterday, Goldstein said, was the fact that the case had lasted only 15 years.

Delegates Listed By Farm Bureau

SHOSHONE, Nov. 14 (AP)—Delegates from Lincoln county to attend the state Farm Bureau meeting in Boise Monday through Wednesday are Fred Petersen, of Bluff, and Olin L. Sorenson, of Dietrich.

Alternates are Grant Stevens, of Bluff, and Ervin Pruthi, of Bluff.

At a meeting Thursday night at the courthouse, members voted to pay expenses of the delegates as well as $5 toward expenses for any county member who attends one day of the meeting.

A study of resolutions to be taken up at the convention was held. Mr. and Mrs. Braun launched the membership drive in the county is over.

The next regular meeting is Dec. 3.

Stunt Man Dies In Jump Scene

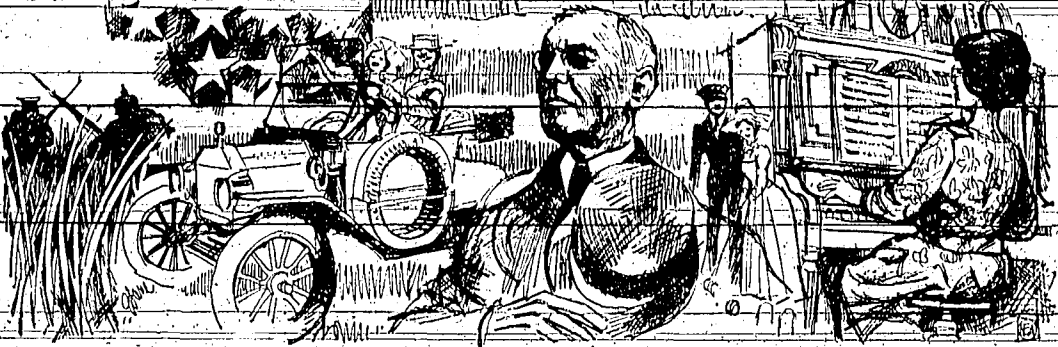

GALLUP, N. M., Nov. 14 (AP)—The movie stunt man and actor Bill Williams died yesterday when he jumped over a Wild West leap he had perfected over 15 years.

Some cast and crew members of the Western epic "Hallelujah Trail" were watching when the stunt specialist failed to make a scheduled leap from a wagon as he was about to plunge over a cliff on the western New Mexico desert near Gallup. He was crushed underneath.

Another stunt man, Bill Brady, was in the wagon with Williams but leaped to safety.

Williams, a Colorado rancher, worked on films and television for more than 15 years. He was playing a cavalryman in "Hallelujah Trail."

The First World War

Written By PHILIP VAN DOREN STERN for Newspaper Enterprise Association

When the tragic year 1914 ended, the German army was occupying northern France and was holding its own on the Eastern Front. But its plans for a quick victory had gone wrong. It now had to wait out the bitter winter when cold and snow would add to the misery of soldiers in the trenches.

Hundreds of thousands had already been killed on the far-flung battlefields, while hordes of wounded filled Europe's already overcrowded hospitals. Homeless refugees, widows and orphans were everywhere, forlorn, cloths in tatters and always hungry.

A wave of death and destruction had rolled across the land, but no one was winning, nor could anyone hope to win at this stage. A long drawn out war of attrition had begun. All that mattered now was to outlast the enemy.

December 1914: 15

Illustrated By John Lang

To replace soldiers who would soon die in combat, new armies were being raised. And munitions were being turned out in astronomical quantities, for this new type of fighting was using up explosives, metal and men at an alarming rate.

But nothing about the war seemed alarming to the United States. It was too far away for that. Most of the tourists had returned safely home where their stories of what was happening abroad were received with incredulity. Even the U.S. Army was not alarmed, for it was making no plans to increase its force of less than 100,000 men. It had some

Awakened

LONDON, Nov. 14 (AP)—A lawyer, referring to complaints about a cock fight near the town of Hitchin, told the court:

"It is the only place in England where people are awakened by the sparrows crowing."

Soviet Union Leaders Have Farm Plan

MOSCOW, Nov. 14 (AP)—The Kremlin's new leaders today outlined the agricultural program they hope will get Soviet farms producing again. It called for more private plots, material incentives and more leeway for decisions at the grass-roots level.

The new regime lodged most of the program advocated by Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev, but indirectly criticized parts of it.

The agricultural program was outlined in an editorial in the communist party organ Pravda.

The editorial urged state and collective farmers to plant, produce and harvest more, instead of depending on orders from above. It also called for "peasant wisdom."

Khrushchev had advocated a similar policy, but apparently it was never fully carried out. Today's editorial said that in fostering low level decisions there should be "not only words but deeds."

In line with previous statements, the new rulers also called for more private plots and for private ownership of cattle. Khrushchev restricted both of these.

The editorial said higher material incentives—another policy laid down by Khrushchev—should be tackled "without fail."

Police Car Hits Coeds On Bicycles

CHICAGO, Nov. 14 (AP)—A city police car ran into four Grinnell college coeds riding bicycles on a highway outside of town late last night. One girl died and three were injured.

Killed instantly was Jacqueline Ruth Freeman, 19, Grinnell, Ill. Authorities said she was the last in line as the girls rode single file to get back before the midnight curfew at the college.

All four bikes were hit. The squad car was returning from chasing a motorist out of the city.

Injured were Michele Anderson, 17, Philadelphia, Pa.; Nancy Adams, 18, Westbury, N.Y.; and Linda Timmon, 17, Lincoln, Neb.

Police Sgt. Jerry Phillips, the driver, and Patrolman Ed Bulcher, said they were blinded by light from an oncoming car and did not see the girls.

Youth Tells Of Starting School Fire

DELLPORT, N.Y., Nov. 14 (AP)—Police say a 15-year-old boy has admitted starting a school fire in a building where he was a student. The boy, whose name was withheld because of his age, had been smoking a cigarette behind the auditorium stage, he said, and flipped it into a trash can.

Thirty-two pupils were injured in scrambling from the burning structure.

The blaze, on March 8, 1963, had been attributed to faulty electrical wiring.

The boy, accused earlier of truancy and petty theft, is awaiting action on a burglary and juvenile delinquency charge. He was described by school authorities as a problem boy who refused to conform to school rules.

They said he had been suspended from classes earlier on the day of the fire, had sneaked back in the building to smoke, and then fled.

Drunk Bird

BRUNSWICK, Ga., Nov. 14 (AP)—Jackie took a sip from the nearby full can of beer someone had left in a restaurant parking lot.

One sip followed another, and he tried a running take-off. But he couldn't get airborne and crumpled in a heap.

He shuffled back to the "beer can" for a few more sips, and tried once again to get both feet off the ground. But Jackie had no luck, and was last seen shuffling south on U. S. highway 17.

Why didn't the police book him? Officers said they debated it, but they could only book humans. Jackie is a seagull.

Justice Is Sentenced on Tax Charge

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Nov. 14 (AP)—Oklahoma supreme court Justice Earl Welch, 42, was sentenced yesterday to three years in prison and fined $13,500 in U. S. district court for federal income tax evasion.

His attorneys gave notice of intent to appeal.

Welch remained free on $5,000 appeal bond after Harper denied a motion for a new trial on the charges of evading more than $13,000 during 1957-61.

Welch is still a member of the state supreme court, but he is not taken part in any action since he and former Justice N. S. Corn, 80, were indicted last April.

Corn pleaded no contest to the charges against him and is serving an 18 month prison sentence.

Pilot Dies In Mid-Air Collision

MANITIA, Nov. 14 (AP)—Two planes from the U. S. aircraft carrier Constellation collided in flight today over the south China sea, apparently killing one pilot.

The second plane was a KC-130 tanker, and the other was a P-4F fighter.

In an earlier air mishap today, two navy aircraft from the Constellation were rescued unharmed after their two-seater P-4F fighter went out of control and crashed.

A naval spokesman said Lt. William Myers, pilot, and Lt. William Moore had to bail out when their aircraft went out of control during a training flight.

The plane was out of contact with the carrier at the time of the accident. A search was launched when it failed to keep its scheduled recovery rendezvous an hour later. The men were rescued within two and one-half hours.

A U.S. navy spokesman said none of the home addresses of the men was immediately available.

Prince Charles Has Anniversary

LONDON, Nov. 14 (AP)—Prince Charles, heir to the British throne, became 16 years old today but neither he nor the nation took much notice of the occasion.

Flies flew on some buildings and the British Broadcasting corporation opened its morning news broadcasts with a birthday anniversary greeting to the prince.

Charles himself spent the day going to classes and taking part in field events at Gordonstoun school in Scotland.

No formal party was held, but a birthday cake was sent from Buckingham Palace for Charles to share with his schoolmates.

Gov. Hatfield Visits Japan With 25 Aides

SAPPORO, Japan, Nov. 14 (AP)—Oregon Gov. Mark Hatfield and 24 state officials and businessmen came to this northern island capital today to return a visit his governor paid to Oregon last year.

Hatfield and his party arrived in Japan Thursday. They left Tokyo yesterday to begin a four-day visit to Gov. Kingo Machimura of Hokkaido island.

The group will tour Hokkaido university and half a dozen factories tomorrow. Included are a dairy, a brewery and a paper mill.

During the mission's 10-day stay in this country, members will have a chance to renew established business contacts and make some new ones, according to the U.S. embassy in Tokyo.

Hatfield will meet top government officials, including the foreign minister and the minister of international trade and industry, and will make courtesy calls on Emperor Hirohito and Crown Prince Akihito.

The group will meet U. S. Ambassador Edwin O. Reischauer, and will get an embassy briefing on the current state of the Japanese economy before leaving for Osaka, Kobe and the Atom-bombed city of Hiroshima.

Firefighters Kept Busy In Chicago

CHICAGO, Nov. 14 (AP)—Three major fires taxed Chicago's firefighting capacity last night and today.

More than 500 firemen—a major proportion of the department's personnel—were put into the fights which:

Virtually destroyed a laden warehouse of Goldblatt Brothers Inc. on the southwest side.

Burned out a five-story empty warehouse of the New York Central railroad on the near south side today, and badly damaged Santa Fe railroad loading platform and five freight cars a few blocks from the New York Central warehouse blaze.

The Goldblatt fire came first and lasted 12 hours.

The second big fire roared through a building at Eighteenth and Clark streets, a disused storage facility of the New York Central railroad.

Five extra alarms were sounded almost at once by first firemen at the second blaze, but they could not all be answered at once.

More than 450 firemen and some 85 equipment units were used at the Goldblatt Brothers fire.

Costly Swing

TEMPE, Ariz., Nov. 14 (AP)—Student Donald J. Solshy took a swing at a fly which landed on the plate glass window of his Arizona State university dormitory room yesterday.

He crashed through the window and fell two stories to the ground, cutting an artery and the muscles and nerves of his left forearm.

Death Takes E. E. Farmer At Age 68

JEROME, Nov. 14 (AP)—Earl Edward Farmer, 68, died suddenly yesterday of a heart attack.

He was born Jan. 20, 1896, in Dixon Springs, Ill. He served in the army during World War I, and married Grace Chambers, Jan. 18, 1936, in Elgin, Ill. He moved to Colorado from Illinois and in 1942 moved to Palo Alto, Calif. He worked for the veterans administration for many years, retired in 1956 and moved to Jerome about a year ago. He attended the Assembly of God church.

Surviving besides his widow are two daughters, Mrs. Donna Armbrage, Coos Bay, Ore., and Mrs. Judy Alexander, Sunnyvale, Calif.; five sons, Donald, James, Sam, Francisco, Calif.; Forest Farmer, Sunnyvale, Calif.; Kenneth Farmer, Santa Clara, Ore.; and Guy Farmer, Fremont, Calif.; one step-son, Robert Chambers, San Jose, Calif.; one brother, Guy Farmer, Marion, Ill.; one half-sister, Mrs. Nola Noel, Long Beach, Calif.; 29 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The body will be sent to Mountain View, Calif., for services with concluding rites in the national cemetery at San Bruno, Calif. Friends may call at the home funeral chapel from 10 a.m. until 8 p.m. Monday.

Souvenir Hunter Takes Large Sign

SQUAW VALLEY, Calif., Nov. 14 (AP)—This winter's first souvenir hunter today made a big haul with the 500-pound sign that stood at the entrance of Squaw Valley.

The sign by 12-foot redwood plank is 10 inches thick, reads "This is the site of the 1960 Winter Olympics." It was decorated with the Olympic emblem.

The Placer county sheriff's office estimated its value at $800.

Junior High Fall Concert Set Monday

A fall concert will be presented by the choral and orchestra department of Robert Stuart Junior high school at 8 p.m. Monday in the school auditorium. An admission of 25 cents will be charged.

The program will be presented by the seventh, eighth and ninth grade orchestra and the seventh grade choir. The seventh grade orchestra, made up of beginners, will feature violinists Carolyn Merzinger, Anita Hamlett and Shauna Jensen, accompanied by the orchestra and Chris Peterson on piano.

Among the presentations, the eighth grade will be "Concertino" by Adler and a march by Handel. The choir will feature the folk songs "Raggle Raggle Gypsy" and "Slumber Song" and soloists Linda Talley. They will be accompanied by Janice Hitchlings.

The ninth-grade string orchestra will play a "Chorale" by Bach and "Sonatina" by Paganini. The program will close with the full high grade orchestra playing "Cripple Creek" and the Scherzo from "Symphonies" for Young Orchestra by John Verrall. Mrs. Virginia Christopher will conduct the orchestra and Mrs. Mary Haun will direct the choir.

Nampa Man Addresses

Clover Meet

BUHL, Nov. 14—Macy Williams, Nampa, area field representative, said all farmers need to have a dream and goal and work towards this objective when he addressed the Clover Farm Bureau at the annual fall produce dinner and monthly meeting Tuesday at the Clover school house.

Williams noted Farm Bureau membership is increasing and the bureau is a medium to acquire funds in farming. Phillip Oberdorf, Caldwell, also was a guest.

During the business meeting conducted by Hugo Meyer, Eller, chairman, it was voted to contribute $25 towards paying expenses of a delegate to attend the state Farm Bureau convention Sunday through Wednesday at Boise.

The proposed resolution to be presented at the county sessions were read and discussed.

It was reported the book entitled "The Naked Communist" by W. Cleon Skousen has been presented to the Buhl public library by the Clover Farm Bureau. Mrs. A. G. Blawell, secretary, in making the presentation, stressed the importance of reading this book.

HUBERT A. WHITE, will be guest speaker at the Burley-Rupert Knife and Fork club meeting at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the Catholic parish hall, Rupert. A tax consultant for 35 years, White is now retired and carries his message of laughter and inspiration to all parts of the U.S., local club officials say. He is a native of Georgia.

For a better understanding of the world's present conditions and problems, it was announced the Dec. 8 meeting will feature a Christmas program.

Police Here Investigate Two Crashes

Twin Falls police investigated two accidents in the city Thursday and two citations were issued but no injuries reported.

Michael K. Miller, 26, 123 Fourth avenue north, was cited for reckless driving after the 1952 Chevrolet he was driving slammed into the rear of a parked diesel truck owned by Jesse Jewell, Prosser, food producer, Gainesville, Ga., at 1:05 a.m. in the 1800 block of Kimberly road. Miller told the investigating officer he did not see the truck and trailer.

Roger D. Paulsen, 17, 1802 Second avenue east, was cited for failure to yield the right-of-way after a two-car accident at 4 p.m. at Fourth avenue and Sixth street north.

Paulsen was driving a 1940 Ford north of Sixth street north when the vehicle struck a 1960 Opel driven on Fourth avenue by Mrs. Patsy Harmon, 30, route 3.

Minidoka Gains $519 on Pari-Mutuel Racing

RUPERT, Nov. 14 — The Minidoka county fair board made a total of $519.14 on the pari-mutuel racing held in Rupert in connection with the county fair, according to Marvin Heinrich, board chairman.

Heinrich reported on the fair at the Rupert Chamber of Commerce meeting Thursday noon at the Hirling cafe.

A total of $44,000 was bet during the four days of the horse racing in Rupert, and was apparently the smallest in the state,
Heinrich said. Pari-mutuel racing was held 26 days in Idaho this year with an average of $10,000 bet daily.

The biggest expense of the horse racing in the county was the pari-mutuel machines and Heinrich said something should be done statewide to cut down this expense.

The pari-mutuel horse racing created more interest in the county fair this year, according to Heinrich. Bigger crowds attended this year than in previous years and the board felt it was because of the interest created through horse racing.

The horse racing will be held again next year in Minidoka county in connection with the fair and more barns and possibly more seating will be necessary,
Heinrich said.

It won't be necessary to spend any money on facilities for the horse racing as the new race track patterned after the one in Los Angeles county was completed this year for the races.

The track is the finest in the state, allowing spectators to view the entire track, Heinrich declared.

A shortage of thoroughbred horses at the races was caused by racing in Elko and also one large supplier of the horses was ill and unable to bring his stock,
Heinrich stated.

Horses from Montana, Utah,
Arizona and Idaho ran in the county race. According to the fair board chairman, facilities at the fairground were outstanding for both horses and horsemen.

Heinrich said night racing was very profitable but it would take some three or four thousand dollars to do this, and the board is not in a position to consider this yet.

Minidoka county has the fifth largest 4-H enrollment in Idaho, according to Heinrich and outstanding exhibits were visited by spectators.

Richard Bohle, chamber president, thanked members for their participation in the fourth annual Businessman-agriculture dinner attended by more than 300 people, which is the largest crowd ever to attend the event.

Pre-Holiday Art Tea at King Hill Draws Crowd

By NORMA HERZINGER
Women's Page Editor

KING HILL, Nov. 14—Tucked back in the foothills, a few miles north of King Hill, is the large, rambling Pitchfork ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. William Knox. The original structure was constructed around the turn of the century and the house dominates the meadow where it is located.

The Pitchfork ranch home was the ideal setting for the Pre-Holiday Art tea sponsored by the King Hill Our Lady of Limerick Altar society members.

Some 175 guests entered the portals of the home to gaze at the paintings, purchase Christmas decorator articles which were displayed, chat with friends and have tea.

Mrs. Knox artistically displayed the paintings of 14 local artists on the three levels of her home, which created enhancing focal points of interest for the many guests. Many of the artists were on hand to show and explain their art work and to visit with the guests.

Artists showed modern, abstract, New England realist, western and outdoor life stills in many interesting and beautiful paintings. These artists have received training at many major universities and others are self-taught in local surroundings.

A tour through the multi-level home is quite an experience. Entry is made through a large covered front porch-patio into a large living, dining and kitchen section.

The ceiling is cathedral style and the entire end of the house is dominated by a large fireplace. The kitchen is an island unto itself.

A staircase affords one an opportunity to overview the entire living section of the home and provides access to upstairs bedrooms. The master bedroom, also dominated by a large stone fireplace, is on the main floor.

Mrs. Chester Carpenter, president of the Our Lady of Limerick Altar society, and Mrs. Knox were co-chairmen of the event.

Altar society members have been working for the past two months on Christmas decorator articles which were offered for sale. Many creations such as decorative candle centerpieces, ming trees, velvet baskets and pin-cushions, aprons, Santa socks, tree skirts, place-mat sets, net-angles and trees and ornaments were displayed in the lower level family room.

In charge of the lovely Christmas display were Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. Thomas Hartung, Mrs. Robert Simms and Mrs. W. F. Shrum.

Full flower arrangements decorating various parts of the home were arranged by Mrs. Jake Bury, Mrs. John Berni, Mrs. Ernest Pasborg and Hedwig Bury. Mary Knox and Ann Wilson were in charge of the guest book and junior hostesses were on hand to assist the guests.

Presiding at the elaborately decorated tea table were Mrs. D. C. Ryan, Mrs. Alfred Wieher, Mrs. G. E. Shrum, Mrs. Wanda Montgomery, Mrs. Vincent Varlack, Mountain Home president of the Altar society; Mrs. Marie Burton, Shoshone, one of the first members of St. Peter's parish; Mrs. Marjorie Hawes, president of the Idaho Council of Catholic Women, Twin Falls; and Mrs. Donald Withers, Kuna.

Mrs. James Russell and her daughter, Phyllis, presided at the refreshment table.

Invitations were sent by Ethel Boni, Kay Ahl-schlager, a guest artist, made the programs.

Guests attended from Glenns Ferry, King Hill, Hammett, Kuna, Nampa, Boise, Bliss, Mountain Home, Gooding, Fairfield, Shoshone, Richfield, Jerome, Kimberly, Twin Falls, Hansen, Bruneau, Ontario and Coquille, Ore., and Ogden and Dayton, Utah.

Mrs. John Hawes was winner of the special prize.

Janet M. Ames, Lang Exchange Nuptial Vows

Janet Marie Ames, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Ames, Twin Falls, became the bride of Darryl Duane Lang, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lang, of Piler, Oct. 31 in rites performed at the Twin Falls LDS tabernacle.

Sishop-Arlington—performed the double ring ceremony before a setting of baskets of white gladioli and orchid chrysanthemums.

Linda Butlers, friend of the bride, played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Barbara Harrell and Mrs. Geneva Holt who sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ankle-length white figured net over white satin gown enhanced with her elbow-length veil of bridal illusion held by a rhinestone tiara. Her only jewelry was an ivory necklace from India, given to her by her aunt.

The bride's sisters, Patricia Ames and Gloria Ames, were bridesmaid and maid of honor. Each wore an orchid brocade sheath dress and carried a white and orchid nosegay.

The bridegroom's attendants were Arden Lang, brother of the bridegroom and William Deban, friend of the couple. Ushers were Richard Ames, brother of the bride, and Ronnie Mounce.

Flower girl was Cheryl Chandler, sister of the bridegroom, who wore a dress trimmed in orchid. She carried a basket filled with orchid-colored rose petals. Ring-bearer, Steven Chandler, carried the rings on a heart-shaped satin pillow.

The bride's mother wore a beige sheath dress. The bridegroom's mother chose a turquoise lace dress. Each wore a corsage of red carnations.

The couple greeted guests at the reception before an arch trimmed in greenery and flanked by two baskets of white gladioli and orchid chrysanthemums. The bride's table was centered with the three-tiered wedding cake. The base of the cake was formed by four heart-shaped cakes. The cake was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom and decorated with orchid-colored roses and silver leaves.

The cake was cut by Mrs. Arden Lang and served by Mrs. Odell Freley. Punch was served by Mrs. Joseph Burdette, great-aunt of the bride and Mrs. B. Z. Jones, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Clifford Saunders was in charge of the guest book. Gifts were displayed by Betty Brown and Marcelle Brown, cousins of the bride.

Debbie Parker Feted at Party

RICHFIELD, Nov. 14—Debbie Parker celebrated her seventh birthday anniversary with a party after school for first grade class members at the grade school. Mrs. Jody Parker was hostess for her daughter's party, assisted by the teacher, Mrs. Max Behr.

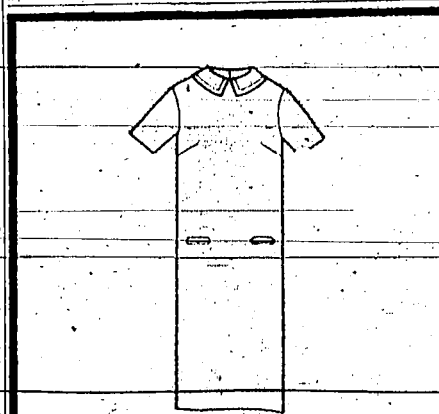

A second party for Debbie and her brother, Joey, was held at the Theo Brush home later in the afternoon. Several out-of-town guests were Sherry Brush, Tommy Brush and Geoffrey Brush, Seattle. Mrs. Ted Brush, Seattle, Mrs. Howard Dewitt and Mrs. Theo Brush assisted Mrs. Parker with serving. Lorna Jean Brush and Carrie Schmidt directed games.

WEEK'S RECIPE WINNER
MRS. GILBERT DEKLOTZ, JR.
Route 1, Piler

Almond Nougat Cookies
1 cup butter or margarine
1 cup white sugar
1 cup brown sugar
1 egg
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 cups sifted flour
1 9-ounce plain sweet chocolate bar
1 cup chopped nuts
Cream butter and sugar, beat in egg and vanilla. Add flour and mix well. Spread in an ungreased baking pan, 13 by 9 1/2 inches. Bake at 350 degrees for about 15 minutes.
Melt chocolate in top of double boiler and spread on baked cookies, then sprinkle chopped nuts on top. Cut in about 35 small squares when cool. (Note: Children love these and they are doubly enjoyable for a tea party and so simple to make.)

mas gift exchange will be held.

Mrs. Eldredge Gives Lesson

BIOBIONE, Nov. 14 — A lesson on Spanish-speaking Americans was given by Mrs. Marjorie Eldredge at the Baptist Women's Mission society meeting. The group met at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Winkler.
Mrs. J. M. Halmaker read a letter from Lois Howell, former Biobione school teacher, who is now working in a school for under-privileged children in Chicago.
Mrs. Harry Turnbull led the devotional service.
Reports were made on projects of the past month where members earned money for the church building project.
The next meeting will be Thursday. The meeting place will be announced later.

Past Oracle Club Convenes

The Past Oracle club met at the home of Mrs. Anna Branson for a dessert luncheon and meeting.
Members were seated at a large round table centered with a garland of fall flowers. Prayer was given by Mrs. Lora Dosa.
Mrs. William Armigé conducted the meeting. Two members were reported ill. The Monday meeting will feature a potluck dinner at noon at the home of Mrs. Armigé.
Mrs. Dosa received a gift and Mrs. W. D. Stearns received a birthday anniversary gift from her secret sister.
Games were played with each member receiving a gift.

PREPARING for the annual Camp Fire Girls candy sale are, from left, Rhonda Krumm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Krumm, and Julie Schneider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Schneider. Camp Fire Girls throughout this council will be selling candy beginning Monday and will continue through Dec. 7. This year they have three different kinds of candy, chocolate covered mints, assorted chocolates and fruit-nut candies. If the United Fund reaches its ultimate goal, proceeds from the candy sale will go for Camp Fire Girls camp improvements. (Times-News photo)

ISU Belts Cal Poly 20-0; Shaw Sets Score Mark

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Calif., Nov. 14 (UPI)—Quarterback Billy Shaw today set an Idaho State university football team scoring record as he led the Bengals to a 20-0 romp over the Cal Poly of San Luis Obispo Mustangs on a rain-soaked field. A homecoming crowd of nearly 4,000 partisans had little to cheer as the 174-pound senior scored two touchdowns to boost his season total to 78 points in the last game of the season. The total points surpassed the record set by Boyd Hall in 1959.

The Mustangs, now winless in 10 straight games, penetrated to the 10-yard line early in the fourth quarter for their only serious threat.

Idaho State, under the direction of "Roll Out Billy," marched to the first touchdown on a 45-yard drive the first time the Bengals gained possession with Shaw rolling out around left end from the three-yard line to score. Don Nicks kicked the conversion.

Cal Poly's defense, which had held the Bengals to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter, broke down in the second quarter. Shaw's 74-yard drive for a second touchdown in 10 plays with fullback Cliff Chilton booming over from the eight with 4:35 remaining in the quarter.

A Cal Poly fumble gave the Bengals possession on the Mustang six yard line midway in the third period and Shaw rolled out around right end for three yards and a touchdown.

Shaw, displaying one of his brightest performances, was the big factor for the winners with 85 yards in 17 carries while Chilton also carried 17 times for 81 yards.

The muddy field and chilly weather handicapped both teams as the game slipped into a 10-0 lead for the Bengals in the third quarter.

Expansion, Free Agent Draft Are Top Subjects for Meetings

NEW YORK, Nov. 15 (AP)—Major league expansion and a free agent draft of high school and college players will be among the more important subjects to be thrashed out at the winter baseball meetings in Houston next month.

At the recent summit meeting of the big league club owners in Phoenix, Ariz., sentiment strongly favored the free agent plan coupled with an unrestricted draft of minor league players, but opposed expansion of any kind, at least, not in the near future.

Even Commissioner Ford Frick, a stout supporter of expansion, recognized the lack of enthusiasm on the part of the owners when he broached the subject of expansion. Nevertheless, he made a strong case for the plan.

"In the minds of many of our people, expansion is a nasty word," he said. "However, we must recognize that there are ten million more people in the area of more than a million and a half, each located in an area not presently served by major league baseball, and all of them are presently engaged in active careers to obtain major league franchises."

Although Frick did not identify the communities he had in mind, he said, "Many of our present fans were brought on by the major leagues' original expansion," he said. "It was a great deal more difficult to bring on another 100 or more players? We've been spread pretty thin, as it is."

The free agent draft, another Frick endorsement, was met with a great deal more enthusiasm at the summit meeting and has an excellent chance to be adopted at the winter meetings. If that comes to pass, it will replace the first year player rule, in effect since 1961.

The free agent rule will provide for a draft twice a year, of all high school and college graduates. In addition, all players not on the major league roster of 40, will be eligible for selection at a stipulated amount.

Writer Notes Heroes of U.S. History Were "Extremists"

Editor, Times-News: With all of the accusations flying around about extremists and extremism I would like to point out a historical fact. Our revolutionary war heroes were known as extremists by our oppressors. It was only because of their extreme actions that we have a free government.

When our rights and freedoms are violated from men John forces much the same as they did in 1776 and voice objections to these violations. As long as there are free men of a strong will and courage there will be extremists.

The loudest voices against these free thinkers and men are the very ones who would destroy our fundamental rights and inform us that they are privileges not rights. They would promote a system of socialism and centralized federal control and destroy our state and individual rights.

When our rights and freedoms are violated from men John forces much the same as they did in 1776 and voice objections to these violations. As long as there are free men of a strong will and courage there will be extremists.

Man Eyes Economic Discord In Wake Of Recent Election

Editor, Times-News: It appears that Governor Smylie is trying to remove Senator Goldwater and why doesn't he? The senator has stated the liberal Republicans are Democrats.

When the American revolution broke the colonies into a population of three million and the world marveled at their achievement, but times have changed.

A California publication states predictions that both domestic and international military and monetary disorder will increase at an accelerating rate, no matter who is elected president.

A Canadian report says our economic "brake" will come this winter. New York reports it is overdue. From deep in Dixie come the words — it will happen in 90 days.

Burley Teacher Scores Poem Appearing in Times-News

Editor, Times-News: It is surprising that no public forum letters have appeared in the Times-News in reaction to the "insolent and untidy" poem written about teacher institutions which appeared in the Times-News column some two or three weeks ago, signed by "Tired Teacher."

I have heard the comments of many of my fellow teachers in Magic Valley concerning this scurrilous piece of misrepresentation. All of them seem agreed that:

1. The thinking of "Tired Teacher" does not reflect the attitude of the vast majority of us. The average teacher has a warm feeling toward the educational officials of both the state department of education and the teacher associations (i.e. the NEA and the IAEA together with their affiliates and subsidiaries). We respect these people and appreciate the many helps they provide for us—including teacher institutes.

2. The Times-News was wrong in allowing such an insolent and misrepresentative contribution to appear in Pot Sheds, which often carries good-humored banter, but rarely anything which is downright ugly or vindictive.

I personally feel that the entry would have been in questionable taste even in the public forum, but here at least the rules of the section would have required that the author sign his name (or her name), a step which he (or she) did not have the courage to take.

control and destroy our state and individual rights. When general oppression reaches a boiling point free men will rebel as they have done through history. There must be a reason for discontent. If believing this way is extreme then I guess those who have called me an extremist are correct and I shall fill with pride each time they do so in the future.

Oakley Man Theorizes Why Goldwater Was Defeated

Editor, Times-News: What defeated Barry Goldwater?

Is he the most courageous man since Theodore Roosevelt. His voting record was entirely for the benefit of America. Some day in the future Americans will realize this.

He believed in Constitutional government. His defeat is not a calamity, but a great victory—20 million Americans still believe in the Constitution of the United States.

The odds stacked against him were too great. Most of the press reporting of unfavorable news hurt him. Most television programs unfavorable to him hurt him. He was a great man, but he was not a politician.

Let them put up any of the men in the Republican party who fought Goldwater and they will go down to worse defeat than Goldwater. Not one of them could get 26 million votes.

If anyone doubts this statement, then prove it. We have one of the strongest machines ever put together in this country and it will take a lot of sensible planning to ever beat it.

Let them put up any of the men in the Republican party who fought Goldwater and they will go down to worse defeat than Goldwater. Not one of them could get 26 million votes.

T.F. Man Avers Book Was Misquoted by Commentator

Editor, Times-News:

A few months ago one of the nighttime news commentators, Mr. Paul Harvey of the ABC network made the comment that if America did not return to old fashioned Christian principles she would decline and fall as did the Roman empire. His reference was "The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire" by Edward Gibbon.

I would like to quote Mr. Gibbon's observations of the early Christians, from the abridged edition published by Dell Publishing company, Inc., page 245.

"But while they inculcated the maxims of passive obedience they refused to take any active part in the civil administration or the military defense of the empire. Some indulgence might perhaps be allowed to those persons who, before their conversion, were already engaged in such violent and sanguinary occupations; but it was impossible that the Christians, without renouncing a more sacred duty could assume the character of soldiers, of magistrates, or of princes."

Mr. Harvey would do better by his listeners to read the complete book, or if he has, to not quote the portions which are so completely untrue.

Gooding Woman Opposes Sunday Liquor Sales

Editor, Times-News:

I have just read your article "Booze" under a Boise caption whereby the Idaho and Heslman association states that liquor profits could be boosted by 1.35 million dollars a year if Sunday sales were permitted.

I read it with anger and disgust, as it seems too bad that our Idaho liquor "business" cannot be satisfied with being able to buy liquor six days a week without using the Sabbath for their drinking.

I am truly glad that our esteemed senator, who proposed the bill in the legislature authorizing Sunday sales of liquor, had his bill defeated, and that the Idaho and Heslman association was not able to get the legislature to pass their standards and clean thinking as to vote against such a bill.

Reader Cites Reasons for Opposing Car Inspection

Editor, Times-News:

I would like to point out some of the discrepancies in your recent editorial in support of requiring automobile inspection, which is being pushed by the head of the Idaho state police.

1. If passed it will only add on more hidden tax to the back-breaking load we already carry. The good Lord knows this is heavy enough without adding more.

2. Where this law has been tried it has led to racketeering by both inspectors and repairing men. We also have enough of that kind of stuff right now.

3. The chances are good that the car owner would be asked a repair bill even if there was no noticeable defect in the car. The legislature is being what it is making this true.

4. Inspection will not keep a car from wearing out or a mechanical part from breaking or a fire from puncturing or blowing out at anytime. This could happen the next minute after inspection.

5. Who is going to inspect the thousands of cars and trucks crossing Idaho on our roads? Or are they a different breed of cats from Idaho drivers?

6. I keep thinking that the head of the Idaho state police was a garage owner in Pocatello and may yet own the plant he

Filer Reader Is Concerned Over Election Outcome

Editor, Times-News:

Now the election is over and the majority picked the man of their choice. I have often wondered if they have thought about the heritage that we are leaving to the future generations. There are several things that have come before us that I don't think would come from a well controlled group of men.

The Bobby Baker case is one of the many. If this case is on the up and up, why didn't they come up with the facts and clear it up?

No, they had the whole thing hushed up, and by so doing they admitted that there was something wrong somewhere. Maybe it would destroy some of the prestige of someone that was up for election in the last presidential election.

Gets Scholarship

WENDELL, Nov. 14 — Nancy Nierfenecker, Wendell, was among 26 Utah State university students who received Union Pacific railroad scholarship checks of $200.

The checks were presented to students at a dinner on the UGU campus by Wesley D. Souler, Salt Lake City, the railroad's Utah agricultural agent. Miss Nierfenecker was graduated from Wendell high school in 1962 and from Ricks college, Rexburg, in 1964. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Nierfenecker.

Scouts Hold Honor Court At Shoshone

SHOSHONE, Nov. 14 — Forty-five people attended a fall court of honor for Scout troop 58 Wednesday night at the LDS church. A hobo dinner was served.

Michael Mason, Snake River council executive, spoke on Scout work, stressing the badge of honor and the necessity for honesty. President D. S. Hiett of the Shoshone Stake spoke and Hal Ross presented the awards.

Receiving awards were Norman Dille, senior patrol leader; Lynn Simpson and Denis Perron, patrol leaders; Martin Canchola, quartermaster; Insignia; Ted Davis, second class; Gary Larson, life Scout; Craig Harris, Don Harris, Denis Perron and Layne Hadlock, first class; Guy Stoddard, Robert Larson, Bryan Simpson, Frank Garrett and Ronald Scott, tenderloin.

Assisting with the dinner arrangements were Mrs. J. O. Simpson, Mrs. M. J. Dille, Mrs. Stanley Larson, Mrs. Cecil Cope, Mrs. Perry Hadlock, Mrs. Roger Stoddard, Mrs. V. F. Perron and Mrs. Ira Davis.

Area Woman Lauds Voters Refusing to Be Intimidated

Editor, Times-News:

Now that the dust from the Johnson landslide has settled, the bannister walls of the political claims and the tears of some 20,000 voters have dried. I take great pride in the fact that the Twin Falls county, which I am a minute part,

It is gratifying to know that I am among individuals who refuse to be intimidated, whose votes are not for sale, who will not be bullied by one of the many and organizations and are still able to think for themselves in the face of overwhelming propaganda. On behalf of my family, thank you.

It is a singular privilege to live among those who believe in self-government—a similar privilege, obviously, that many across our with have earned a reputation.

The assumption must be, when all of our principally farm and livestock states endorsed the Democratic candidate, is that this nation, as a whole, is crazy. I am not crazy. I am a minute part of a nation of 115 million people, satisfied with $1.25 wheat and delighted with best imports. I say nothing of approving the war we aren't having in Viet Nam and a deep desire to live with Cuban missiles pointed this way.

Why don't we save 200 million dollars every four years on political campaigns and leave the decisions to the projected formulae of the pollsters, pollsters and Frankley, Eric Saveried and Walter Cronkite?

Chain Dragging Surveying Teams Face Oblivion Under New System

By O. A. (GUS) WELKER
Times-News Feature Editor

A fixture in America since the days of George Washington, the chain-dragging surveying team, working through a transit at a not too distant point, and with a chain crew plodding from one marking stake to the next — is moving into oblivion.

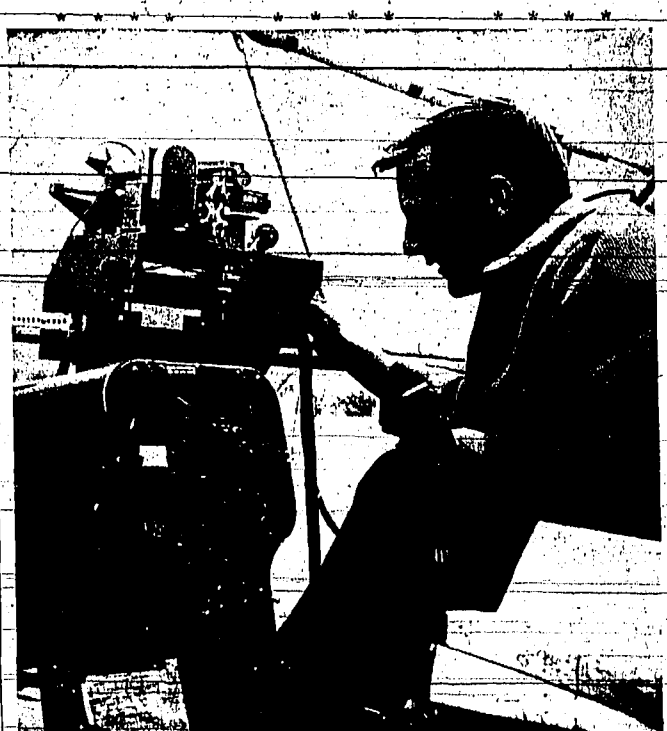

To take his place as he falls before the relentless onward surge of progress is a new system which combines electronics, aviation and optics into an impossible-to-beat and much more accurate way to get the job done.

With officials and crews of the bureau of land management in charge, this new system came to Idaho last week, surveying concentrated in a 325,000-acre area, comprising some 14 townships, south and west of Buhl. It is called the Airborne Control survey system — listed as ABC for short. The BLMT is the only government agency authorized by law to make boundary and area surveys on all public lands. Heading up the work in this area is Eugene F. Huttelbl, BLMT chief cadastral engineer for Idaho, Boise.

With good weather, the work should be completed in another week — and it will be accomplished with half the number of man hours and one-third of the workers required for a normal job of this proportion.

Roughly the area extends from Salmon Falls creek on the east, to the Tunnaw canyon on the west, and from the Owyhee county line on the north to a point on a straight line south of Buhl. About 75,000 acres of it is in Twin Falls county. It includes approximately 14 townships and possibly is stronger than another 100,000 acres adjacent will be added to the project.

The big motivation for the project of course, is the contemplated expansion of desert entry farmlands in the area. Nations of the world are being over-

Cross Between Bobcat, Domestic Cat Mates, Settles on Area Ranch

IFAGERMAN, Nov. 14.—Tom could be called a halfbreed. Born on the desert south of Thousand Springs, he is half bobcat and half domestic cat.

Now about 1 1/2 years old, the intelligent animal has made his home at the Robert W. Ring Salmon river ranch for the past six months. In fact, "Tom" now is a father, having mated with a domestic cat on the Ring ranch.

As a result there are now several quarter-breed offspring, some of which sport long tails like their mother, and others with bob tails like the father.

The cat's first appearance at the ranch was completely unexpected. Robert Ring said the animal came into the barn, jumped onto a milk cooler, and "gave me the eye." He then jumped down and disappeared.

For awhile, Ring said, the cat would disappear into the desert for a day or two at a time but would always come back. Now he usually restricts his tours away from the ranch to a morning run into the desert. His reason, apparently, is to bring back mice which he lays before the

With the hunting season in full swing, we just hope that he doesn't get shot," both Ring and his wife declare.

T.F. Sailor Is on Crew of New Nuclear Submarine

It is a long way from a seventh grader selling the Times-News in the downtown area, to a post communications technician on a missile submarine, but Stanley G. Blair has successfully made the leap.

The 1958 graduate of the local high school, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Blair, 1202 Fourth Avenue east, is now "at home" on this nation's latest missile firing submarine—the USS Von Steuben.

The submarine was commissioned recently at ceremonies held at Newport News, Va., with Mr. and Mrs. Blair getting the "red carpet" treatment both by their son and the navy. They made the trip east to attend the commissioning.

The Polaris sub is the 27th Polaris firing warship to join the fleet but is only the third to bear the name of a Revolutionary war hero. It is named for Gen. Friedrich Wilhelm von Steuben, a Prussian baron who volunteered his military knowledge to the new American colonies.

It was laid on Sept. 5, 1962, and was launched on Oct. 10, 1963. It is 325 feet long and has a beam of 33 feet. Maximum speed is in excess of 400 feet and is in excess of 20 knots. The ship's complement shows 122 men in each of two crews.

The submarine sports a total of 16 missile tubes and this fact, according to information which her son and ship's officers told Mr. and Mrs. Blair, led to what in navy language, is a "clean weapon."

The local couple were told that during the trial runs all 16 missiles would be fired and that perfect hits were scored on targets.

As a result a broom was set outside the captain's quarters by crew members and the captain in turn tied it to the mast or back into port; this fact caused much while testing from area ships because it heralded an unusual feat—that of 16 successful hits.

Compact Is Favored By Governor

OLYMPIA, Wash., Nov. 14, APB.—Advocates of a Columbia Interstate compact who claim it would prevent diversion of Pacific Northwest water to thirty Pacific Southwest states have a powerful ally in Washington's Republican Gov. Elton Daniel J. Evans.

Evans has made his position crystal clear. He favors the compact and he favors it strongly.

Outgoing Democratic Gov. Albert D. Rosellini, on the other hand, used every tool at his command to block the compact.

Evans and Rosellini claim they are both on the side of the angels. Each says he is a zealous protector of the Pacific Northwest's treasured water resources.

With Rosellini out of the picture in January when Evans takes over the governor's chair, the future for the compact would seem bright.

But one key obstacle remains: a state legislature more clearly Democratic than past Democratic legislatures which have been hostile to the compact.

Without approval of the Washington legislature, the compact cannot be enacted.

It has not been approved by the Oregon legislature either. However, the legislatures of Idaho, Wyoming and Nevada have gone on record supporting the compact.

Rosellini's aversion to the compact has prompted verbal sparring with neighboring Gov. Mark Hatfield of Oregon and Robert L. Smylie of Idaho.

The two Republicans urged Rosellini to change his mind but the Democratic governor would never budge.

Supporting Rosellini's contention is John J. O'Connell, the state's Democratic attorney general.

O'Connell argues that California could still get Columbia river water even if the Northwest states adopt the compact. He says the U. S. Supreme court has ruled that a compact between several states cannot restrict the

FLYER BALLISTIC missile submarine USS Von Steuben is shown above during tests which preceded the recent commissioning ceremonies at Newport News, Va. Stanley G. (Blair) Blair, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Blair-Twin Falls, and a 1956 graduate of the local high school, is a member of the crew of the

Former Times-News Carrier Is Crew Member of Newest Missile Submarine

Blair, who joined the service in 1957 and first went to San Diego where, following boot camp, he entered the electronics school. He was then sent to the submarine school at New London. This was in 1959.

His first assignment was on the USS Barb, a Regulus missile submarine. While on this assignment, Blair was the first successful delivery of mail by guided rocket. This was in 1959.

From a point in the Atlantic, a guided rocket of mail was sent by rocket to the Mayport naval air station in Florida. Blair's mother has a letter which was sent to her by her son who posted it aboard ship before it was placed in the rocket.

Tours of duty also saw him serving on the USS Scorpion, and he has included Honolulu. In 1960 he was stationed at the nuclear site near Boston Spa, N.Y., a project much like that at the AEC near Idaho Falls. Blair is now a member of the crew of the newest missile submarine, the USS Von Steuben.

"They even have an automatic laundry machine on board and one man does the laundry for the entire crew. Needless to say, we couldn't find a speck of dirt anywhere."

Blair said they were both impressed with just how large the submarine Von Steuben really is.

The interior, of course, is all stainless steel and both agreed that it was "like a community in itself."

It had, for instance, separate lounges for the crew and officers, comfortable beds for each member (not the old navy hammock) and even piped-in stereo music.

No longer are crew lines a sign of Navy life at sea. Crew members on the Von Steuben have their meals served to them, "just like in restaurants," Blair declared.

"In the crew's quarters we need soft drink machines, a popcorn popper, which was electric, and even a projector which is used to show the latest feature movies while cruising under the sea on off-duty hours."

"They even have an automatic laundry machine on board and one man does the laundry for the entire crew. Needless to say, we couldn't find a speck of dirt anywhere."

Normal cruises on this new submarine will last about 60 days with the men on board all during that time. With the latest equipment it is possible for the ship to stay under water for periods practically as long as that.

"Blair told us he wouldn't want to serve anywhere else than in a submarine," Blair said. "He loves his work and his wife has learned to live with the fact that being a navy wife, she must get used to long periods without him being around."

"Personally, we both enjoyed the tour through the navy yard and the submarine more than we can say. Coming from a mountain state as we do, it is hard to realize that ships this big can be handled with such precision and can offer comforts to crew members much like they would find at home."

"Blair is justly proud of his ship. He laughs when he recalls that when going through school in Twin Falls and delivering papers for the Times-News the farthest he got away from home was the end of his route."

Slides of Fair Shown at Bliss

BLISS, Nov. 14—Clinton Abercrombie, Clonding, guest speaker at the Bliss PTA meeting Monday, showed slides of the World's Fair.

Mrs. William Exon, president, reported the third and fourth grade room won the room contest.

The PTA will sell a Barbie and Ken doll unit, complete with clothing which will be made by members. The set will be sold at the Christmas school program. Proceeds will go towards the PTA scholarship fund.

There will not be a meeting in December. Refreshments were served by Mrs. James Faulkner and Mrs. Exon.

Elk Tag Revives Stories Concerning Trapping of Animals From Wyoming

BY JIM HUBBARD

BOISE, Nov. 14—Nearly three decades ago a number of Wyoming elk were live-trapped, tagged and released to the St. Joe-Coeur d'Alene country for release.

Now, the story is revived by north Idaho newspapers. An unidentified hunter is reported to have retrieved a tag from the ear of an elk at an earlier date.

Now, the story is revived by north Idaho newspapers. An unidentified hunter is reported to have retrieved a tag from the ear of an elk at an earlier date.

A quick conclusion, of course, is that the animal is a survivor of the Wyoming elk naturalization program and that its age was at least 27 years at the time it was shot. Tagging studies over the years show the normal life expectancy of elk in the wild averages four to five years, although some captive animals have lived to about 20 years.

Continuous elk tagging in Idaho from 1946 through 1953 marked a total of about 400 animals. Figures based on these studies by Biologist Wes Shaw, Boise, show that most of the elk tags retrieved by hunters are returned to the Idaho fish and game department by the end of the fifth year after live-trapping. One animal carried his tag for 13 years.

Elk-tagging records now available go back to 1946. These show that the serial numbers "1935" and "1937" were placed in the ears of an elk at the Band Creek wildlife management area of eastern Idaho during the 1935 live-trapping operation.

This does not prove conclusively that the rumored-elk of the Coeur d'Alene was not trapped in Wyoming in 1937 and tagged and released in north Idaho the same year. It is just unlikely, although records show one marked elk roamed 10 years before meeting an ignoble death in front of a train, and one deer migrated upward of 200 miles from its trapping home range from where he had been transplanted.

These are isolated examples and all but meaningless to game managers who want to know where the average tagged animal goes, the sex composition of a herd and other vital statistics that play important roles in planning annual hunts on elk, deer and antelope. Far more significant to them than the "monster exception" is the knowledge gained from the bulk of the returns.

Big game trapping, tagging and sometimes transplanting in Idaho has been underwritten with federal aid funds of the Pittman-Robertson act of 1939. Over the years a large body of data has been collected to show whether herd populations are increasing, declining or remaining stable.

Calif. and fawn-tagging establishes known age at the time of release, making it a simple matter to determine this factor when the animal is tagged by a hunter or otherwise recovered at some future date.

In addition to serially numbered tags with codes giving dates and geographic locations, the department also adorns animals with permanent plastic ear patches and collars that are colored and visible at great distances through high-powered scopes and field glasses. This makes it easy for game workers to study animal habits and migratory movements over a broad terrain.

Different colors signify various things, and give the opportunity to observe the marked animals several times in as many places during their lifetimes. Usually they are marked on winter ranges and, of course, shot on the fall hunting grounds. Metal ear tags are not visible from a distance.

Elk since 1946 have been trapped, tagged and released at the following Idaho sites: Pocatello game preserve, Band Creek wildlife management area, Warm Springs Creek, Salmon River, Johnson Creek, Hughes point, Milk Creek and Cedar Creek.

The nearly 2,000 deer tagged since 1952 were live-trapped at the following locations: South fork of the Salmon river, Caribou, Bonneville, Boise, Heise, Swan Valley, Lava, Ashton, Silver City, Feather River, Sublet, Chamberlain. It is noteworthy that department men went to Wildhorse canyon, Nev. in 1957 to ear-tag deer believed to be migrating between the two states.

Trapping and tagging big game animals often results in scenes resembling the rodeo arena. The animals must be bulldozed and subdued before tags, ear patches, collars and even bells are attached. No serious injuries to workers have occurred, but scratches and torn clothing are commonplace.

A muscle relaxant is used to "gentle" moose, elk and bear before marking them. An air rifle repels the hypo needle cartridge to the target. The relaxed animal remains as alert as ever, but his muscles are immobilized and he is momentarily harmless. Moose, however, are tagged on the open range, with the hypo needle being fired from a hovering helicopter.

Blood samples are taken during trapping from deer and other animals to check for diseases. The department urges every one who sees big game animals wearing brightly colored collars and ear patches to report the date and where the observations were made. Hunters who tag animals with ear tags, patches or collars may keep these as souvenirs. But, they are requested to report accurately the serial numbers on the ear tags, and the colors of the patches and collars, as well as where and when the animal was shot.

The basic idea underlines all the big game trapping program. The department has accomplished the trapping and tagging. The success of the rest of the program is up to the hunters. Send in your observations and animal ID numbers and collar colors.

Fashions Are Program for BPW Group

HATLEY, Nov. 14—A program on fashions was given by Nancy Carter at a meeting of the Big Valley Business and Professional Women's club Monday evening. Mrs. Carter demonstrated the characteristics of the "yung" and the "yin" physical makeup of women and discussed the type of clothing they should wear. Mrs. Keith Bird was chosen as a model.

The dinner meeting was held at the Star cafe and the Thanksgiving motif was used for decorations.

An invitation from Mrs. Emma Crockett to hold the Christmas party at her home, "The Alpine Villa" in Ketchikan, was accepted.

Mrs. Lloyd Smith, president, said the club's usual practice of bringing gifts for elderly male inmates of the Gooding tuberculosis hospital would again be observed.

MAN SURGERY
KING HILL, Nov. 14—Mrs. O'Leah True, Boise, underwent major surgery at St. Albans hospital, Boise, this week, according to her mother, Mrs. Emma Crockett. Mrs. True is a former King Hill resident and was a more county nurse for several years.

SMALL WARDROBES GO FURTHER

with FLAMELESS electric drying

With an electric dryer you need fewer play clothes for fast-growing children, which means fewer worn-out clothes to discard. Buy your child a single snow suit, putting it in the dryer when it comes home wet. Sport shirts, play clothes and work clothes can be laundered in a short time. Clothes stay brighter, last longer, calling for smaller wardrobes.

Flameless dryers dry with a gentle heat that guards fabric life. Clothes in the dryer are safe from hot sun, wind, rain, dust and dirt of outside atmosphere. Clothes go further, last longer. You need only half as many sheets and towels. You can strip the beds after breakfast and have them back from your washer and dryer before lunch.

Flameless dryers are long lasting, too. See the new models at your electrical dealer's. Get a flameless electric dryer and "Waltz through washday!"

Chain Dragging Survey Team Heads Toward Oblivion in Name of Progress

run by hoards of hungry people because of population explosion and vast areas of open land such as that involved in the project soon will be growing foodstuffs. In fact, desert entries have been made in the northern and eastern portions of the area at present, and several thousand acres are being produced.

Work is geared primarily to establish accurate ownership boundaries for both private and public lands.

Probably the hardest part of the project has been the ground search for all the old survey markers which were placed between 1888 and 1900. Some no longer exist and others, apparently, were never actually placed, although they were pinpointed on charts of that time.

Contract surveys continued until 1911 at which time the government, noting the errors, decided to supervise its own work in this field.

Right now there is one-third of the area of Idaho that is not surveyed, or is surveyed in such a manner that available information is practically useless. The ABC survey now under way is the third photographic re-survey in the United States by the BLM and the first time that the Airborne Control system has been utilized in this fashion.

Use of electronics and aviation in a combination such as that used at present—first, a plane, a helicopter, and a ground crew—has permitted the shuttle of crews across difficult terrain in minutes instead of the days formerly required on the ground.

Even this improvement, however, had limitations because in many instances there was no available space for a landing of the craft.

In 1964 the surveying was revolutionized by the development of electronic distance measuring devices. By transmitting high-speed microwaves between master and remote points, survey teams could, without physically measuring the distance on the ground. However, since these electronic units are restricted to line-of-sight operation, one inch with equal 3,662 feet on the ground. With the new aerial reading equipment, the points marked can be read within one millionth of an inch, or within three inches from any ground point.

The map reading and photo reading equipment will be the same as that used to pinpoint the missile sites on the island of Cuba. The license plate of a car in such a photograph can be read, and if someone were hiding under a sagebrush he would be easily detectable.

It is all in the name of progress and, of course, in accuracy. Engineers of the U. S. forest service from Ogden and Twin Falls visited the survey sites last week.

They flew over the area first to get the overall picture of the mapping project and then returned by car to witness actual demonstrations of the technique with the helicopter and instruments being used.

The crew working on this project numbers six men in addition to the helicopter pilot and a mechanic. Built is the home base and the chopper has become a familiar sight as it lands near the motel where the pilot and mechanic are housed.

As the man said, "Time marches on and the romantic occupations of the past gradually give way to a thing called progress."

CHIEF CADASTRAL engineer for Idaho, Eugene F. Hultebell, inspects rock marker placed during a survey prior to 1900. While marking surrounding it was placed by current survey team for better identification from the air. (Times-News photo)

all the points needed have been marked, and next spring the aerial photographs have been taken and are ready to read, just how accurate will the results be? On the photographs, for instance, one inch will equal 3,662 feet on the ground. With the new aerial reading equipment, the points marked can be read within one millionth of an inch, or within three inches from any ground point.

At the same time development of the "chopper" and the unique stability augmentation system contributed the final ingredient needed to make the ABC system work.

So the combination of a 320 horse power Miller helicopter, the hydralist, the hoverlight, the height indicator and the high intensity rotating beacon combined to put in motion the change which will someday see the old ground surveyor relegated to the mouldy and cobwebbed shelves of history.

And when the work is completed in the area near Buhl, and

Ordinance Is Amended At Heyburn

HEYBURN, Nov. 14—Members of the village board voted to amend the ordinance Wednesday evening during their regular meeting.

The amendment will allow residents to install a disconnect switch for the water system. The present ordinance calls for everything to come under one disconnect switch. This will allow the residents to have use of their water system during a fire although the power to the rest of the house and property will be shut off.

It was noted that several residents are presently violating the house trailer ordinance. Letters will be sent this week to known offenders. The ordinance calls for a 30-day permit for an occupied house trailer. After that period they may request one 30-day extension permit.

Robert Burnham and Mrs. Adele Toomes met with the board concerning the road going between their properties. The board had previously announced its intention to "open" the street for public use.

It was decided to delay the project until complications can be straightened out. It was pointed out that an area resident has been building partially on the platted street, which was platted out several years ago by the government. A narrow two-wheel spaced "trail" currently exists in the area.

COMFORT SOUND HEARING INSTRUMENT DEVELOPED
A new hearing instrument just introduced by World Famous Telfex Laboratories brings a totally new comfort to those who need hearing help. It is especially for those who have used a hearing aid, or those who could not become accustomed to the loud background noise of ordinary hearing aids.

Now, super tiny electronic circuits eliminate most unwanted noise to allow you to hear clearly as nature intended. Speech and music are clear as a bell when you wear this new aid. Harsh loud sounds that can cause such discomfort with ordinary hearing aids are automatically softened with Telfex COMFORT SOUND CONTROL.

The new Telfex Comfort Sound Instruments are especially valuable in correction of various defects, and the problems of those who hear but don't understand. It allows you to understand words spoken softly from across the room, in noisy crowds, or on a busy street with noisy traffic. Best of all, the new Comfort Sound Instruments are hardly noticeable.

"SAME DEALER . . . SAME LOCATION FOR OVER 37 YEARS"

THE NUT BRO. CHES & WAL

TELL ME, DID YOU EVER KNOW A WOMAN WHO WOULD SILENTLY AND BEHOLDINGLY SITTING THERE AND WAITING FOR THE DOGS TO COME AND WAG THEIR TAILS AT HER?

OH, NO! SHE SPOKE GENTLY TO THE DOGS.

SO YOUR WIFE CALLS YOU AND THE DOGS BY THE SAME NAME? (A BIT CONFUSED)

BUT I'M FAIRLY NEW (HOW CAN I BE?) AND I DON'T KNOW ANY PATIENTS ARE HERE. (THE DOGS ARE HERE.)

WELL, THE MEN TO GO TO EUROPE?

THESE POOR JIM'S MARRIAGE WAS A CASE OF THE DOGS AND THE DOGS.

OH, NO! JUST THE OPPOSITE! FIRST CAME THE ERROR AND THEN THE TRIAL!

OUR BOARDING HOUSE MAJOR HOOPLE

BOOK FOR MAJOR HOOPLE. THANKS! I'VE BEEN ANXIOUS TO GET THIS.

THIS IS THE ONE I'M GLAD MARTHA WASN'T GIVEN IT. (MARTHA WASN'T GIVEN IT.)

YES, HOW TO BE THE MASTER OF YOUR OWN HOUSE?

THE ONLY WAY TO RULE THE ROOST IS TO DOMINATE IT BY BEING FIRM!

BECAUSE THIS IS GREAT STUFF! BE FIRM!

THAT'S WHAT I SAID TO THAT BACK YARD!

NO MORE MENIAL FOR ME! MY GOOD MORN! (AND NOW I'M BACK ON MY OWN!) (THE OWLS CLUB.)

AND AS SOON AS WE FINISH TO START ON THE ATIC!

HOW TO BE THE MASTER OF YOUR OWN HOUSE, EH?

I'LL BEAT THE OWLS CLUB QUITE LATE! (GO ON! DON'T DISTURB ME IN THE MORNING.)

Captain EASY

by LEO RIVER

WHOEVER HE IS, HE'S BOUGHT OUT THE MAYOR WITH A HARMONICA AND A POCKET RADIO!

THIS IS AN OUTRAGE! MAYOR MOSE! I APPOINTED YOU! NOW YOU'RE RUNNING FOR THE SENATE, AGAINST MY INTERESTS!

MAYOR MOSE: 'MAYOR MOSE' FOUNDATION FOR THE PRESERVATION OF HILLBILLY LIFE! CITIZENS REGENTS VER MEDDLIN' NOW THAT YOU DEEDED US THIS TOWN!

AS MAYOR, I'D DO HEAVY SENTENCE YOU TO TWENTY-FIVE HOURS IN STOCKS... ON THE PUBLIC SQUARE!

LATER...

WELL, MCKEE - I SEE YOU'RE STILL DABBING IN STOCKS AND BONDS! HEY-HEY!

ARTEMUS SKRUGE! I MIGHT HAVE KNOWN YOU WERE MIXED UP IN THIS!

YES! WITH MOUNTAIN MOSE IN WASHINGTON AS MY PERSONAL SENATOR, MY PLANS FOR A POWER DAM AND FACTORY IN THIS VALLEY ARE ASSURED!

OW-W! OHAT THAT URCHIN!

SAY, LAD! STOP THAT SHOOTING... TILL I GET OUT OF RANGE!

5:00 A.M.

AH-CHOO! I CAN'T LET SKRUGE BEAT MCKEE INDUSTRIES TO A POWER GAS AD FACTORY!

YOU'LL HAVE TO RUN YOUR OWN CANDIDATE FOR SENATOR, SUH!

NEXT DAY...

EASY, THERE! ISN'T AN IDIOT IN TOWN SUITABLE FOR THE SENATE!

I HEARD OF ONE, MR. MCKEE...

IT'S BASHFUL BROWN, THE MOST LOVABLE CHARACTER IN TOWN! ONLY THING IS, NOBODY'S EVER SEEN HIS FACE!

WELL, LET'S GO OUT AND LOOK AT IT!

BUGS BUNNY

EVERYBODY OUT OF THE ROOM... GROARK!

I GOTTA GET RID OF MY TONY!

THAT YAKKIN' PARROT IS DRIVIN' ME DAFKY!

BUGS PET SHOP

DOGS GET HAIR ALL OVER, AND CATS TEAR UP THE FURNITURE WITH THEIR CLAWS!

UNLAX, FUDDY, YER PROBLEM IS SOLVED!

GOOD MORNING, OL' FWIEND!

WELL, IF IT AINT MY PAL AN' BUDDY... ELMER FUDD!

I WANT TO GET A PET BUT I CANT MAKE UP MY MIND!

HERES MY CHANCE T' GET RID O' THAT FEATHERED PHONOGRAPH RECORD!

MAN! TH' PUMPS IT'S BLOWIN' A GALE!

DOGS GET HAIR ALL OVER, AND CATS TEAR UP THE FURNITURE WITH THEIR CLAWS!

UNLAX, FUDDY, YER PROBLEM IS SOLVED!

Y' A NEEDS A PARROT? THEE'RE NEAT, CLEAN, AN' GOOD COMPANY, TOO!

HMM! I NEVER THOUGHT OF THAT!

IT'S LIKE LOSIN' A FRIEND... BUT I'LL LET 'M GO FER TEN BUCKS!

START TH' COUNTDOWN... WE'RE READY TO BLAST OFF!

TODAYS MY LUCKY DAY! IM RID O' THAT CHATTER-BOX... AT A PROFIT!

HOLD MY SEAT... I'LL BE BACK!

MADDDAYA SAY BISCUIT-NOSE? WHAT'S NEW?

WHAT DID YOU CALL ME?

I DIDNT SAY ANYTHING, MISTER BISCUIT-NOSE... URK! I MEAN... IT WAS ALL A MISTAKE!

GIVE ME MY MONEY BACK, AND NO BILLY QUESTIONS ABOUT THIS BLACK EYE!

ADD SOME WATER TO TH' SOUP... THERE'LL BE ONE MORE FOR DINNER... GROARK!

Hi, stranger! Whats your name?

You!

You? Is that your last name?

Yes!

Then you must have a first name!

course!

...it's Hey!

ELMER FUDD

IT'S SO LUCKY TO ME! I'VE FOUND A LADDER! I'LL GO AHEAD AND CLIMB IT!

HEY! LOOK AT YOU! THE PUZZLE PLAYER!

IT'S SO LUCKY TO ME! I'VE FOUND A LADDER! I'LL GO AHEAD AND CLIMB IT!

HEY! LOOK AT YOU! THE PUZZLE PLAYER!

IT'S SO LUCKY TO ME! I'VE FOUND A LADDER! I'LL GO AHEAD AND CLIMB IT!

HEY! LOOK AT YOU! THE PUZZLE PLAYER!

ONLY ON ONE CONDITION, NECTOR... BUY ME A SHIRT GUN, PLEASE, POPY!

DONT SQUIRT IT AT PEOPLE!

THEN WHAT'LL I DO WITH IT?

TARGET PRACTICE, SQUARTER PRACTICE!

SHIRT I AGED FOR IT!

IT'S STARTIN' TO RAIN, CHUB!

That's about all we need!

It's cold enough to snow!

How come we always get the dirty jobs like fishin' wood?

Maybe we're bein' punished for somethin'!

I wish I was an animal!

Animals don't have to gather firewood!

Animals keep warm thout' fies! They've got 'em!

I wish I had some! I'm cold!

Me, too!

Ah, shaddap! What's to sing about?

Hi, stranger! Whats your name?

You!

You? Is that your last name?

Yes!

Then you must have a first name!

course!

...it's Hey!

The FLINT

AS I LIVE AND BREATHE!
MY PARTNER, CANARY BYRD!

SO YOU WERE MAXIM'S
PARTNER?

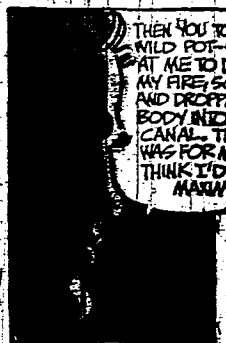

OKAY, FLINT—SO I WAS MAXIM'S PARTNER. WHERE DID I BLOW IT?

WHEN I TAILED
MAXIM INTO THE PARK, YOU WERE
TAILING ME! YOU
BEAT ME INTO THE TUNNEL
OF LOVE...

...AND SHOT
MAXIM WITH A SILENCER.
YOU HAD TO KILL HIM, SO HE'D NEVER SQUEAL ON YOU.

THEN YOU TOOK A
WILD POT-SHOT
AT ME TO DRAW
MY FIRE, SCREAMED
AND DROPPED HIS BODY INTO THE
CANAL. THE IDEA WAS FOR ME TO THINK I'D SHOT
MAXIM.

BUT THE M.E.'S REPORT SHOWED THAT THE BULLET FOUND IN MAXIM'S
BODY WAS FROM A .32-- I USE
A .38 POLICE SPECIAL.

WHAT CALIBER IS CANARY'S GUN,
GROWLZ?

IT'S A .32 AND
I'LL BET THE BALLISTICS
REPORT ON IT
WILL SEND THIS STOOBIE TO THE CHAIR!

AMEN!

LET'S GO,
CANARY!

IT ISN'T ALWAYS
THE BIG TIME
CROOKS THAT CAUSE TROUBLE.
TAKE THE CASE OF LATCH
MCCLARY

COMIN' OUT!
WHO'LL FADE
A FINE

I'LL TAKE THREE!

GIMME THE REST!

WILLY COOP

MY GOSH, IS HE SICK OR SUMPIN'?

NAW, HE'S LIKE THAT CAUSE I TOLD 'IM
TO THINK ABOUT
TH' COUNTRY WHEN HE'S GONE!

WHATCHA
TELL 'IM
THAT FOR?

CAUSE HE GOES
AROUND EATIN'
GAZOOKUS
GIZZARDS,
AN' STUFF
LIKE THAT...

...HOLY COW,
WHAT KINDA
STUMMICK DO
YOU THINK HE'S GOT, ANYWAY?

HIS STUMMICK'S NO DIFFERENT FROM
YOURS OR MINE!

THAT WAS A HECK
OF A THING TH'
GRAND WIZER DID...

...TELLIN' ME
I THINKA WHO'D
BE RUNNIN' TH'
COUNTRY AFTER
I WAS GONE!

YEH...

WHAT'S TH' SENSE OF ME THINKIN'
A THING LIKE THAT??

NUTHIN I COULD DO ABOUT IT
ANYWAY!

JUST TH' SAME I'D SURE
LIKE I KNOW WHO WOULD TAKE OVER MY THRONE!

HMMMM

IT!

ALL I GOTTA DO'S DISAPPEAR IN A WAY THAT LI-
MAKE IT LOOK LIKE I'M DEAD!

...THAT WAY I'LL
COME UP WITH ALL
TH' ANSWERS!
YEAH!!

I WONDER WHY I NEVER THOUGHT OF DOIN' THIS
